MOST PERFECT MADE

THE INCREASED NUTRITIOUS VALUE OF BREAD MADE IN THE HOME WITH ROYAL YEAST CAKES SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT INCENTIVE TO THE CAREFUL HOUSEWIFE TO GIVE THIS IMPORTANT FOOD ITEM THE ATTENTION TO WHICH IT IS JUSTLY ENTITLED. HOME BREAD BAKING REDUCES THE HIGH COST OF LIVING BY LESSENING THE AMOUNT OF EXPENSIVE MEATS REQUIRED TO SUPPLY THE NECESSARY NOURISHMENT TO THE BODY.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Cultivate patience. You will need it when a self-made man begins to tell you the story of his life.

The lazier a man is, the harder he tries to work other people.

Many a fellow is so stingy that he won't even tell a story at his own expense.

Some people brag about their past almost as much as others boast of their future.

Repertec. "Can you support a family?" The cautious father cried. "I only wanted Emily!" The suitor then replied. —From Judge

The Limit. Ted—I hear he is very extravagant. Ned—Is he? Why, he had a plumber repair his auto.

As Usual.

Bobbie—Is Sis engaged to be married? Pop? Pop—No. Just to be taken to the streets, etc., I think.

His Version.

The small boy came home from Sunday school looking so disheveled and dusty that the mother had grave suspicions of his having been at Sunday school at all. He explained his disarray by the fact that he had stopped at a neighbor's house to see some young puppies and had climbed into a stable in order to be able to find them.

"What was the Golden Text?" inquired the parent. "Don't worry," was the answer. "There's nothing like that in the Bible," declared the mother. "Yes, there is. I guess I know the Golden Text. Our class said it over and over."

To settle her doubts the mother telephoned to the boy's teacher. "Harry tells me that the Golden Text to-day was, 'Don't worry. You'll get the blanket.' What does he mean?"

"With a peal of laughter the teacher explained the boy's statement, giving the text correctly: 'Fear not, the Comforter shall come unto you.' —National Monthly.

A Thought For To-day. The task before us is to discipline ourselves by laboring for others, not to gratify ourselves by disciplining others.—Mandell Creighton.

Mollified. Attorney—How old are you, madam? Witness—Sir! Attorney—Beg your pardon; how much younger are you than the lady next door?—Philadelphia Ledger.

New Definition. Teacher—What is the difference between militarism and militancy? Pupils—Militarism is... Militancy is for militarism!—Judge.

Cause Of War. Ottawa Journal. "Think of several million men being killed or crippled because German bureaucracy thought it would not be etiquette to suggest arbitration to Austria."

ONTARIO RURAL YOUTH

Does Not Seem Eager To Enter In To The Fight. Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Young men in rural Ontario are showing a marked reluctance to volunteer for the front. They are not measuring up to the standard their fathers did at the time of the Riel rebellion, declared G. E. Aylesworth of Madoc, retiring president of the Dominion Land Surveyors' Association, at the annual banquet of the members, held here.

"In my home town only four young men have enlisted since the war began," he said. "I understand that in rural Ontario the parents of the young men are loath to allow their sons to go to war. I was told that two-thirds of the soldiers at Kingston are British-born. Our forefathers responded to the call to arms—what is the matter with their sons?"

"I have never heard a single person in Canada object to the war or to Canada's participation in it, yet the young men in the rural parts of the province are not showing a better spirit. In fact, I have said, hard to understand."

Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, said that Canada is having its day of trial, and its resources are severely drained. But there was no doubt that all will work out satisfactorily in the present test. "Surely we as Canadians are as competent and courageous and have got as great a capacity to endure now as we ever had in other days," said Dr. Roche. "We look forward to a speedy return to normal conditions."
