TO TURN GARDEN ISLAND

Into a Summer Resort For the People Of Kingston. Within a fifteen-minute boat ride of Kingston, a new summer resort will be open to the public this year. H.

A. Calvin has decided that, instead of tearing down the buildings on Garden Island, he will give them to the people of Kingston to spend their sum-mers in. There are about thirty nouses suitable for summer occupa Garden Island is certainly a id-1 to the city and yet quite exclusive. There is a telephone and telegrapi line to the island, and good ferry service. It is not generally known that Garden Island has a library of over 6,000 velomes, sta t d years ago, partly by a contribution by the islanders and a grant by the government. WAS HOME ON FURLOUGH. Lieut, William Mackie Visited With
