CHANCELLOR NEEDS TIME

So Reichstag May Not Meet Before March 10.

London, Feb. 6.—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Amsterdam says that although the Reichstag has adjourned to March 2nd, a Berlin message received in Amsterdam says it is believed that it will not meet before March 10th, as the new chancellor of the exchequer needs the additional time to familiarize himself with the duties of his office.

St. Luke's Woman's Guild Event

The Woman's Guild of St. Luke's church held a successful afternoon tea and sale on Friday at the home of Mrs. Graves, 677 Princess street, the proceeds amounting to $55. Tea was served by Mrs. J. Bermingham and Mrs. J. Marsh, assisted by the Misses E. Bermingham, T. Carroll, D. Murray, and E. Saunders. Those in charge of the different tables were: Fancy work, Mrs. J. Caldback and Mrs. Lyons; home made table, Mrs. A. J. Murray and Mrs. R. Reynolds; candy table, Mrs. Seriven. Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Saunders received the guests, and Mrs. Chalkey took the money at the door. Delightful music was supplied by Miss Rose Compton during the afternoon.

Thirty Million Cartridges.

How much ammunition does a modern army use? We shall not know until after the war what the German and the allied forces have been expending; but we know that the German used in 1914-15 a total of 30,000,000 cartridges for field artillery, 363,000 rounds. It is worth noting that battles are much less costly in ammunition than sieges. The siege of Strasburg alone cost, weight for weight, three times the amount of ammunition used in all the decisive battles and actions throughout the whole war. Of course, these figures are a mere bagatelle compared with those of the present struggle, with its millions of soldiers and its quick-firing guns and its battles lasting for several weeks.

The Sickle of the Sphinx.

The oldest piece of wrought iron in existence is believed to be a roughly fashioned sickle blade found by Belzoni in Karnas, near Thebes. It was imbedded in mortar under the base of the sphinx and on that account is known as "the sickle of the sphinx." It is now in the British Museum and is believed to be nearly 4,000 years old.

Ivory For Britain.

The tusks of an ordinary elephant weigh 120 pounds and are worth $300. It requires 12,000 elephants to supply 650 tons of ivory to the English market. Sheffield takes one-third.

"Allanbury Baby Foods," Gibson's. Queen Elizabeth of Belgium founded a cooking school in Brussels with a three year course and an honor course. Little girls of poor parents were learning to make palatable dishes when the war broke out and it is hoped that the war will not destroy all the good work the queen has done for her people. "Palm Olive Shampoo," Gibson's.
