START A RECIPE BOOK

The recipes which you will find on the Women's page of The Whig each Saturday will help you prepare many table dainties so as to get new and very pleasing results. They are the recipes of some of the best hotel chefs in the world, and of women who are famed as household scientists. They are well worth saving—paste them in a book.

Every time a man looks into a mirror he imagines he sees the reflection of a hero.

Blessed is the woman whose hand can always find what he is looking for just where he left it.

CATARAQUI CONCERT.
Wrist Watch Presented to Sergt. George Marshall.

Chris Church, Cataraqui, held a successful entertainment in the Village Hall, on Tuesday evening, Rev. Mr. Elliott presiding. In the first part of the programme solos were given by Miss E. Black and D. Cooper, who had to respond to encores. Dialogues and choruses were rendered by the Young People's Society, a duet by Misses Jackson; humorous recitations were given by J. Kelly.

The second part of the programme consisted of a laughable farce in five scenes, entitled, "More Blunders Than One," skilfully portrayed by six members of St. Paul's Church, Kingston. The following took the different characters: Mrs. Eggleston as "Louise Benvenote"; Gordon Fleming as "Young Melbourne"; Kenneth McCullough as "Old Melbourne"; and "Troop the Bailiff"; Miss S. McNeill as "Liddy"; Miss S. McNeill as "Liddy"; and Mr. Kelly as "Larry". The play was exceedingly funny throughout and brought forth well-deserved applause. Immediately afterwards, Rev. Mr. Elliott, handed over a beautiful wrist watch to Sergt. George Marshall, on behalf of his friends, on the occasion of his leaving for overseas service with the third contingent. The proceedings closed with "God-Save-the-King".

Borghesians were served so those taking part. Great praise is due to Miss Elliott and the committee for the able manner in which everything was conducted.

County Orange Lodge.
The annual meeting and the election of officers for the County Orange Lodge of South Frontenac was held Tuesday afternoon. There were about fifty members present. The officers elected were: C. H. Wood, master; E. K. Webster, deputy-master; J. Dixon, chaplain; James Berry, treasurer; H. Graham, recording secretary; J. Woods, financial secretary. In the absence of the retiring master, J. Spence, the deputy-master and master-elect occupied the chair.

KINGSTON MILITARY CARNIVAL

February 22nd to 6th.
To the Citizens of Kingston

Single fares have been granted by the C. T. R., C. P. R., and the C. N. R. good coming to Kingston on the 22nd, returning up to the 26th, from Bowmanville on the west, Cornwall on the east, and from Lindsay, Peterborough, Renfrew and Ottawa and all intermediate stations.

Over 200 stations are covered in this territory and with the co-operation of all Kingstonians, this can be made the biggest week in the city's history. Thousands of strangers will be attracted to the city, among whom will be friends and relatives of the troops soon to leave for overseas. Give them a hearty welcome and a courteous reception. If you can be of assistance to them, do so gladly.

A First-Class Program of Military Sports

is now being arranged, notices of which will appear later. Write all your friends in the above territory and invite them to spend one or two days in the city.

To the Merchants of Kingston

Opportunity is knocking at your doors. Let him in. With your co-operation this will be the biggest mid-winter week Kingston has ever had. There is not a line of business in the city that will not benefit from it. Make your windows as attractive as possible; decorate the exterior of your store; use extra advertising space, as hundreds will remain here for two or three days and will look to the local papers for latest news. Let the reception to the strangers be such that they will write for their friends to come, or go back home and send them here for the last two days. Send every stranger away a booster for Kingston.

Advertising and lots of it is required to cover this territory, in the form of newspapers, window cards, dodgers and fence posters. For every dollar spent in advertising judiciously, ten dollars will be returned to the city. Carvers for this fund are now among you. Let your subscription be a large one. Remember this is not a one-day's celebration, but five solid days, the five biggest days Kingston has ever had or will have until the return of the troops.
