The matter came before the directors as a result of the report given by Secretary Bushell, on the recent convention of the Fair's Associations.

The Russian government recently placed some orders for locomotives in the United States, and as it is understood that further orders are pending, it is hoped that the Canadian company will secure a share of the business.

Nothing in the Story.

The Whig, of February 8th contained an item under the heading, "They Were Married All Right," which is found to have had no foundation in fact.

Few districts can offer such opportunities to the sportsman as the wild country around the Yellowhead Pass, the rugged territory in the Rocky Mountains on the eastern border of British Columbia. This country has not been much frequented by the white hunter hitherto, owing to the difficulty of access. To gain the pass it was necessary to embark upon a pack train journey from Edmonton. Twelve miles a day of ten hours was reckoned last travelling. This state of affairs, however, has now become a thing of the past, for the Grand Trunk Pacific railway has been pushed through this pass, and the adjacent country is now accessible. In the Yellowhead Pass district caribou, deer, mountain goat and sheep afford plenty of exciting sport.

They require careful stalking, for they frequent the rugged mountain slopes well up near the timber line. Perhaps the greatest excitement is provided by bears, grizzly and silver tip. The country is piled up with a maze of dead burned trees, uprooted and stacked cross-cross. These, combined with the dense undergrowth, render it an ideal haunt for big game. Often, when climbing over a deadfall you may come unawares on a black or grizzly bear. The latter species is especially a tough customer to meet in an awkward corner. Tackling a full grown grizzly, especially when he is wounded, calls for a certain amount of nerve, particularly at close range. So far as fishing is concerned, there is also ample sport, the catch comprising, for the most part rainbow and speckled trout, the Dolly Varden trout, pike, salmon trout and in the neighborhood of Tate Jaune Cache, salmon, for these fish travel as far up the Fraser as this point to spawn on the sandbars. The country is freely intersected with creeks and mountain streams feeding the Athabaska, Lette, Moose and Fraser Rivers.

Cured Fifteen Years Ago of Piles and Eczema

By Using Dr. Chase's Ointment—Certifies That the Cure Was Permanent.

Some people have tried so many doctors and so many treatments in their search for cure for piles and eczema that they find it difficult to believe there is an actual cure.

The strong point about Dr. Chase's Ointment is that it not only brings relief promptly, but brings about actual and lasting cure.

In 1897, Mr. K. at 45 years of age, 25 Duro street, Peterboro, Ont., writes as follows:—

"I was troubled for thirty years with itching piles and eczema. I could not sleep at night, and when I got warm the itching was terrible. Eczema covered my legs down to the knees, perfectly raw. I have tried every preparation I could hear of. Seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised, I procured a box, and this Ointment effected a complete cure."

On Sept. 23, 1912, Mr. Ketcheson writes as follows:—"I received a letter from you to-day, saying that you found on file a statement made by me 15 years ago. I have always given Dr. Chase's Ointment a good name since it cured me, and shall tell you how I came to use it."

"I had suffered for many years from eczema and piles, and had tried dozens and dozens of doctors and treatments, but nothing I could hear of in vain. Reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I purchased it at once, and was soon completely cured. That was fifteen years ago, so there can be no doubt of the cure being a permanent one. I have met a great many people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment."
