

NEWS GATHERED OVER NEAR COUNTIES

Frontenac

GLENDOWER.

Feb. 6.—T. Babcock is drawing timber to his home. The snow storm blocked the roads so much that people had to shovel the roads. Biram Hopkins is visiting James Willson. Mrs. J. Timmerman is visiting her daughter in Godfrey. A surveyor from Kingston was doing some work for Biram Hopkins.

MURVALE

Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boyce have returned home from visiting friends in New York city for some time. Murvale junior hockey team defeated Harrowsmith junior team last Saturday on Murvale rink, by 9 to 6. Murvale seniors were beaten by Yarker by the score of 5 to 3. Mrs. David Burton has returned home from visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. Irish, Yarker. Percy Henderson and Miss Edyth Shillingford, Sydenham high school, spent Sunday at home. George Jackson, who has been very ill for some time, is convalescent. Arthur Cowdy spent Sunday with friends at Sydenham.

KEPLER.

Feb. 8.—The Kepler auxiliary of the Woman's Fraternity Society held its monthly meeting at the sausage at Elginburg on Monday. Mrs. A. Orser is visiting friends in Sydenham. Robert Lyons and family spent Sunday at Henry Lindsay's. T. J. Garrett and family, were recent visitors at Elginburg. W. H. Hartman, Miss Evelyn Donnell is very ill. Mrs. Rosevear is at Ross Warrant's. Miss Helen Wartman has returned to her school after being storm, stayed at her home for a few days. Herbert Lawson and wife returned to Elginburg on Thursday. Mrs. Sigworth has returned home after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Manuel Orser, who was ill. Alfred Kavenar and wife are at T. J. Garrett's.

GLENBURIE.

Feb. 8.—The recent storm blocked the roads for three days. The rural mail carrier was unable to make his trips. The young people "comparing a driving party, enjoyed themselves at W. Cashman's on Thursday night. R. Orr is improving from a severe cold. Mr. Appleton called on friends during the past week. Charles Gashman has the material on the ground for a new residence. Our school is progressing favorably under the management of Miss Couper. The friends of Mrs. J. Keyes, are pleased to hear she is improving. Miss Alice Murphy is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. Kelly. The young people are looking forward to a wedding in the near future. Mrs. M. Fowler and Miss Kathleen Cushman have returned home after a month's visit with their sister, Mrs. G. Marr, Utica, N.Y.

WAGARVILLE

Feb. 8.—Traffic has been resumed after the recent storm which blocked the roads and made it impossible for the rural mail carrier to make his daily trips. J. Jackson is hauling slab wood to Parham. School is progressing favorably under the able management of Edward Armstrong. R. Wagar is doing a rushing business with his wood sawing outfit. The party at the home of McComber's was much enjoyed. Jackson's saw mill will soon be running full time, which will be appreciated by the unemployed. Earl Hovess, of Kingston Business College, spent Sunday at home. Cumber has returned home after visiting relatives at Sydenham. William McComber, Jr., who has been ill is much improved. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith of Long Lake, at H. Smith's; Tip H. W. at Elgin; Lake; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cousins; at McLean.

GLENGVALE

Feb. 8.—There was no service in the Methodist church on Sunday owing to the quarterly meeting at Elginburg. Hugh McCracken has leased William Emmons' farm and will move there in March. James Mecker had a bee last Monday, hauling hay from Simcoe Island to his newly-purchased farm here. Herbert Curt lost a valuable horse recently. There was no mail for four days last week, owing to the snow blockade. A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Cartwright, who died at the residence of her son in Cobourg, at the age of ninety-five. Miss Rose Gibson, Burlington, Vt., has been the guest of Miss Kathleen Orser for the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barvan, Kingston, and Mrs. Berry and daughter, Simcoe Island, spent a few days at R. J. Elberck's recently. Miss Ella Hamilton, Kingston, visited at home last week. A. Sanda, Lattimer, is operating his circular saw in this vicinity. Russell Battersill visited friends at Godfrey last week.

HARROWSMITH.

Feb. 8.—J. M. Shibley, entertained a number of friends at cards on Friday evening. Miss E. M. Clow, also entertained the week previous. W. Cooper and sister, Jessie, have returned home after visiting friends at Godfrey. Miss Lucille Gallagher is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Leggett, Ottawa. Mrs. Godfrey and Miss Olive Godfrey, Kingston, are spending a few weeks with W. J. Godfrey. Mrs. Humphrey, spent a few days in Kingston last week. The many friends of J. E. Shibley, are glad to see him out again, after being confined to the house so long through illness. Leonard Baker is able to be out again, after having a slight operation performed. The funeral of the late Mrs. John Truscott, was largely attended on Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Mrs. E. E. Gallagher, Sydenham, was calling on friends on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. John Clow is spending a few days in the city, this week.

SYDENHAM

Feb. 8.—The heavy snow storm on Tuesday and Wednesday caused the roads to be blocked and no mail could be brought in from Monday evening till Thursday. The quarterly service was held last Sunday in the Methodist church, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Tripp was present at the morning and evening services. Next Sunday, Rev. F. Tripp will go to Perth Road to conduct quarterly service there, while the Perth Road minister will take charge of the two services here. Next Friday evening the pupils of the high school will hold their annual "At Home" in the assembly hall of the school. The many friends of Mr. Dier are glad to see him around again, after being confined to the Kingston General Hospital for some time. Among the recent visitors are: L. Storey, of Yarker, with his parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Shorrey; Mrs. L. Abbott, of Keplar, called on friends on Saturday; Miss Gillie, of Kingston, has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Sargent.

PLEVNA.

Feb. 6.—Owing to the heavy snow storm on Tuesday last, the settlers are taking our timber for the Chandler and Jones company. J. Flake has the contract of taking out wood for the school. A number of young people of the village attended the party at J. Ohlman's on Friday evening. A number of the farmers are hauling ties to Lavant. Mrs. M. Davy, also Mr. and Mrs. W. McKinnon, of Fernleigh, were guests at W. Davy's on Friday. Mrs. E. F. Card called on Mrs. Ira Wood on Friday afternoon. Miss M. Tate was the guest of Mrs. A. Card one day recently. Prayer meeting was held at Ira Wood's on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. Baldwin and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Davy on Sunday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. Lloyd gave a birthday dinner on Saturday last for Mrs. Clement. Mrs. F. Mallory called on Mrs. C. McNeil one day recently. Miss Mary-Clement has returned to her home at Ardooch, after spending a couple of weeks with her aunt, Mrs. A. Card. A jolly load from the village spent Saturday at J. W. Card's camp.

HOLLEFORD.

Feb. 9.—Next Sunday a special service will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Humphrey, the occasion being the anniversary of the dedication of the Holleford, Methodist church. The skating rink is in good shape, and patronized every evening by a large number of young people. A few girls have come to stay at the home of the neighborhood, when the death of W. Dowker was a former resident here. The death occurred at Boissevain, Manitoba. T. Freeman and son are doing quite a business with his gasoline outfit, sawing wood among the farmers. J. Deline is moving in one of G. T. Babcock's houses. James O. Kelly, of Sydenham, spent the week-end under the parental roof. Miss Andrews, who for a number of years, made her home at G. T. Babcock's has gone to Rosedale. Mrs. John Redmond has returned to her home at Keplar, after spending a week at her son's, A. J. Redmond's. Mr. and Mrs. W. Vanleuven spent Sunday with friends at Wilmer. A few days ago, the Martin brothers received the sad intelligence of the death of their sister, Mrs. W. Seading, Adams N. Y. Miss Amanda Walker will leave soon to enter the millinery business with her sister, Mrs. Quiter, of Toronto. J. W. Redmond is hauling wood to his house at Bath Road.

SUNBURY.

Feb. 6.—Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church of this place met on the 20th ult., at the home of Mrs. Albert Webb. Notwithstanding the bad condition of the roads at the time, a large gathering of the members—some of them accompanied by their husbands—was in attendance. A pleasant afternoon was spent and in the evening between forty at fifty sat down to a bounteous supper prepared by the hostesses and her daughters. After tea, a pleasant time was spent in music, singing and games for a couple of hours.

On the 24th ult., the Sunbury school hockey team went to Ida Hill and played a game with the school team of that place, resulting in a split victory for the former by 5 to 1. On the 31st ult., the return match was played on the same rink, again resulting in a victory for the Sunbury school boys by a score of 6 to 4. The playing of the boys in the latter game was much more even and of a better class than in the first game, ten minutes overtime having to be played in order to decide it. Quite a large crowd of grown ups gathered to witness the games and considerable interest was manifested.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.

Feb. 8.—Wesley Bell, at home from the lumber woods, badly hurt, has returned to his work. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson entertained a few of their friends to an oyster supper on January 30th. Mr. and Mrs. Pettifer, Edmonton, and U. Maguire, Sheffield, were recent guests of E. and William McKnight. Mrs. John Carr and Mrs.

Hughes, Portland, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. D. Youmans. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Shorts have returned from Banff and taken up residence in the Walker house, on the boundary. W. Shorts attended his father's funeral at Dead Creek last week. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. William McKnight spent a pleasant evening in their home last Friday. Miss Isobel Crook was a weekend guest of Miss Mabel Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Grey visited friends at Tichborne. Miss Dell Pringle and S. Hunter, Arden, were at Alexander Crozier's on Sunday last. Miss Minerva McKinnon is spending a few days with Mrs. William Cowdy. Mrs. J. W. Laidlaw leaves on Tuesday for her home in Winnipeg. Sacramento service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Brown, superintendent of the mission, officiating. The quarterly board and Ladies Aid held their meeting on Sunday. The officers were re-elected. William McKnight is visiting friends at Actonville. A. W. Thompson has gone to Kingston to take Sidney Babcock, an old man without a home, to the Home for the Aged. John Godfrey, Robert Dyer and R. T. Beverly attended an Orange meeting at Verano last week. The executive of the L.L.C.E. held a business meeting at L. L. Price's on Thursday evening. William Cowdy is out with his saving outfit. George Godfrey has returned from visiting friends at Godfrey. Lumbering is being carried on quite extensively, in spite of the poor outlook. The wood yard is being rapidly filled up.

COLLINS BAY.

Feb. 8.—Collins Bay was visited by one of the worst snow storms in years. The snow was piled up ten feet in some places in the roads, making it impossible for anyone to get through. The skating has also been stopped for a time. Mr. Pickard and family have moved here from Hamilton. He has rented the roller mill from A. M. Rankin. Miss McKay has moved to her new home, lately purchased. George Saunderson received the sad news of his brother's death, near Montreal. He was brakeman on the G.T.R. and fell off a car, being instantly killed. He lived in Brockville and leaves a wife and two sons. Mr. and Mrs. Saunderson and Miss Edith left Monday noon for Brockville to attend the funeral. Lieut. A. A. Finley is attending military school. Mrs. W. Britt was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. W. Tait, Kingston, who is very ill. Her recovery is hoped for. Collins Bay was made lively Sunday evening, when C. Wheeler's horse ran away, badly breaking the cutter. It was caught near Kingston. Miss F. Lussac spent Sunday at home. Miss Madeline Bertram is spending a few weeks with friends at Sunbury. Amey, with her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Veazans. Mrs. A. Tait spent a few days in Toronto recently. Miss Mollie Fairfield spent the last two weeks in Toronto. Mrs. J. Brash has returned after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Keyes, Wolf Island.

Leeds

LOMBARDY.

Feb. 8.—M. Dooper is suffering from a broken wrist. Mrs. R. Smith, who had a fall on the stairs, has broken her hip. A fall covering very fast. Mrs. Robert Tennant is a patient in Smith's Falls hospital. Mrs. C. McLean is able to be around again. E. Omara is recovering. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. T. Torrey, who with his four daughters and one son, are all patients in Saint Francis hospital, Smith's Falls, suffering from pneumonia. The death occurred on Friday morning of Emily, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Coutts, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Coutts, who were in the city. Miss Coutts was to be married in two weeks. Bora, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corvite, a son.

DELTA.

Feb. 8.—Miss Mary Bolton has been visiting friends in Quebec in the past week. The carnival, which was to have been on the 6th, had to be postponed on account of the thaw. Mrs. W. A. Russell spent the last two weeks in Kingston and Brockville. The annual revival services have closed after a most successful meeting. Mrs. A. M. Phelps leaves for Winnipeg on Friday next for an extended visit. W. Bell is suffering from injuries sustained while representing his light in the snow with fresh courage. He was badly burned on his hands and head. Mrs. S. Morris is recovering from her recent illness. Mrs. G. Austin, of the northwest is visiting at Mrs. A. Brown's. The executive of the public library met recently in the school house to reorganize for the year. The officers for 1914 were re-elected.

SEELY'S BAY.

Feb. 9.—Miss Ella Gilbert has returned home after a few days visit with friends at Kingston. Mrs. N. A. Johnston is visiting friends at Watertown, N. Y., and other points. Miss Mac Robinson, Kingston, is visiting friends here for a few days. A Sunday school convention of the Kingston district was held here last Friday. A large number of delegates and others were in attendance. Mrs. J. Motwin Taylor, of Gananoque, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church last Sunday evening, and gave an interesting talk on China, which was highly enjoyed by the large congregation present. Seely's Bay and Lyndhurst hockey teams played at Lyndhurst last Saturday, and neither side scored. The ice was in a slushy condition. It is expected that the teams will play at Elgin on Wednesday, if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Seely's Bay team is in the lead so far in the league games. C. Hartley has started his saw mill running, and is getting a large number of logs to cut.

WASHBURN'S CORNERS.

Feb. 6.—Mrs. William Earl, who has been seriously ill, is decidedly better. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnston, of Athens, were Sunday visitors at C. Fry's. Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis visited Sperton friends recently. A. McGhee, student at Queen's, was a weekend visitor in Athens. The Anglican congregation of Addison on Wednesday evening last honored Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lattimer with an address and presentation prior to their departure. The driving party to Greenbush was enjoyed by all, who thanked Mr. and Mrs. Lovern for a pleasant evening. On Saturday evening a large number of people were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Reardon, of Island. Mrs. A. E. McClean is ill at her home in Athens. Revival services carried on at Delta for the past few weeks closed on Friday night. Teams are engaged hauling wood to Delta. Mrs. W. Stafford, of Delta, is seriously ill of pleurisy. Mrs. William Webster, Smith's Falls, is visiting in Athens. A number from here attended the lecture in the assembly hall, Athens, given by Prof. W. E. McNeil, of Queen's university. The majority of the dairymen here have succeeded in securing their supply of ice.

Lanark

PLUM HOLLOW.

Jan. 28.—D. M. Kilborn and Sue Little are not improving as their friends would wish. Mrs. Edward Dowden has returned from visiting Smith's Falls, is holidaying at her house here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wiltse. Mrs. Coleman Kilborn is confined to her home ill of lung trouble. John Barker, of Saskatchewan, has been visiting at the home of B. Barker.

LAVANT STATION.

Feb. 9.—Mrs. J. S. Paul is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lee. Miss M. Thomas spent last week end with her cousins, Mrs. D. Crawford and Mrs. R. Harper. Snow Road. Mrs. W. C. Boyd and daughter, Ethel, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd on Sunday. Mrs. Robert Sproule, Mundell's, is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. M. and Mrs. G. Sproule. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McFarlane and family spent last week end with the latter's brother, J. R. Paul, Poland.

FRANKVILLE.

Feb. 8.—At the Methodist parsonage, Frankville, on Wednesday, Jan. 20th, Rev. A. E. Hagar united in marriage, George Tackberry, son of the late Nathaniel Tackberry, to Miss Olla M. Connor, daughter of the late Sydney Connor. The bride groom, who are held in the highest esteem by the community, left on a wedding trip to Smith's Falls and Ottawa. On their return they will reside at Addison. There was a large crowd at the hockey match here on Saturday last. Victor, of Frankville, defeated E. B. Hart, of Smith's Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kilborn, Plum Hollow, visited in town on Sunday. Mrs. Leslie Soper is in Brockville for a few days.

MABERY.

Feb. 8.—The Farmers' Institute was held in the village hall on Feb. 3rd. In the afternoon Mr. Ferguson, Dalmeny, spoke on cow testing and crop rotation, and Mr. Clarke, V.S., of Goderich, spoke on ailments of horses. Mrs. Norman, of Toronto, addressed a meeting of the Women's Institute. In the afternoon she spoke for a little time on institute work, and then branched out on her subject of personality. Mrs. Norman is a delightful speaker and her address was much appreciated by all present. In the evening a meeting was held in the hall, when Mr. Ferguson spoke on the method of farming, on cow testing and prevention of tuberculosis among herds of cows, and Mrs. Norman on love, life and laughter. A musical programme was prepared and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Lovell, of Perth, was present at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Buchanan will return to Earlton on Tuesday, and Miss Cora Buchanan will accompany them. There was a Red Cross meeting at Mrs. Sarah Macroe's on Thursday, and a large number was present. Mr. Bradley, of Smith's Falls, was in the village a few days this week. J. W. Walroth spent a day in Smith's Falls last week. John Deacon is the new mail carrier from Dollingbrooke, to Mabery.

YARKER.

Feb. 10.—The roads are getting passable again after the snowstorm of a few days ago. Owing to unnecessary services at Colebrook last Sunday, there was no service in the Methodist Church here. The teaming on Monday night at Colebrook was well attended by people from Yarker when some of the talent of the village assisted in the programme. All are glad to hear of the speedy recovery of Mrs. D. Smith. Mrs. J. Shibley, of Harrowsmith, spent the weekend at the home of her parents. The senior hockey team played at Murvale last Saturday; score 6 to 3 in favor of Yarker. The Enterprise junior hockey team played the return game with the local boys here, Saturday last. After changing the rubber up and down the ice for an hour, the game ended with neither side scoring. C. Peters has sold his house to Mr. Murphy, of Lattimer, who Advertisement for Sunkist Oranges Today. Includes text: 'Order SUNKIST Oranges Today', 'Big, Juicy, Sweet, Firm, Tender-Meated, Seedless Navels are Now on Sale in Abundance at All Good Dealers' Stores in Your Neighborhood'. Also features an illustration of a hand holding a lemon and a 'CUT OUT THIS REMINDER' coupon.

Advertisement for Labatt's Stout. Text: 'LABATT'S STOUT', 'The very best for use in ill-health and convalescence', 'Awarded Medal and Highest Points in America at World's Fair, 1893', 'PURE-SOUND-WHOLE SOME', 'JOHN LABATT, LIMITED, LONDON, CANADA 29'. Includes a small illustration of a bottle.

Advertisement for Arrow Line Furrier. Text: 'ARROW LINE', 'NORMAN', 'ON THE WAY-A NEW ARROW COLLAR', '221 Princess Street', 'Repairing and Remodelling a Specialty', 'Prices Moderate'. Includes an illustration of a fur collar.

Advertisement for Scanton Coal. Text: 'SCANTON COAL', 'The kind you are looking for is the kind we sell', 'Scanton Coal', 'Is good Coal and we guarantee prompt delivery', 'BOOTH & CO.', 'Foot of West St.'. Includes an illustration of a coal pile.

Large advertisement for Gin Pills. Text: 'Winter's Chills Bring Out Kidney Ills.', 'Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS', 'are a perfect protection against winter Kidney and Bladder Troubles, as Mr. Dunn will testify.', 'Depend on Gin Pills to cure your Kidney and Bladder ills— to give you relief from Rheumatism and Pain in the Back— to neutralize uric acid and prevent bladder irritation— to regulate the urine—in short, to enable you to enjoy life this winter.' Includes an illustration of a Gin Pills bottle.