—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

William Sprain, piano tuner. Orders received at McAuley's, Phone 804.

Prof. Matheson, of Queen's, lectured in Athens on Thursday night on "Superstition and the Stars."

Mrs. John Donaldson is returning to her home in Joyville after a lengthy visit with friends in Nanapan.

U. Burrows, Division street, who has been in the Hotel Dieu, has recovered and is now at his home.

It was Thomas Mills, furrier, who gave his views regarding the holding of the fair, not Thomas Mills, banker.

Plumbing, Tinsmithing and Heating; prompt attention. Ed. Halligan, 110 Queen street. Phone 1509.

On Friday Mrs. F. J. Johnson, florist, saw a crow in her garden on Johnson street. A harbinger of spring!

Dr. H. D. Spence, a graduate of Queen's, has been admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Eng.

The Whig will be glad if readers who get interesting letters from the front will let us know or give extracts from them for publication.

H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuley's book store.

Honora Lockett is to address the Sunday morning Bible class of the Y.M.C.A. The same evening a treat is in store when the regular weekly young men's meeting is to be held.

On Friday night, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sherman, corner of Clitham and Fifth streets, passed away. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, to Catarqui cemetery.

An intensely interesting and highly profitable lecture on the present war, was the subject of the Brockville Record on Thursday night. He given them on Dean Starr's lecture given them on Thursday night. He was accorded a very warm reception by his former fellow townsmen.

Zion Presbyterian—Celebrates the hundred years of peace between Canada and the United States. Mr. Johnson, the American consul, will be present at the morning service. Prof. W. L. Grant, M.A., of Queen's, probably Canada's best authority on this subject, gives an address at 7 p.m., entitled, "The Hundred Years Peace."

START A RECIPE BOOK

The recipes which you will find on the Women's page of The Whig each Saturday will help you prepare many table dainties so as to get new and very pleasing results. They are the recipes of some of the best hotel chefs in the world, and of women who are famed as household scientists. They are well worth saving—paste them in a book.

SATURDAY'S POLICE COURT.

Three Offenders Were Before the Police Magistrate.

Three drunks, and all old-timers, came before the magistrate at the Saturday morning session.

"I guess I was drunk, all right," said the first, and he was taxed $2 and costs, or ten days.

"Guilty, your worship," said the second, and his case was disposed of with a similar fine.

The third was let down with a fine of $2 and costs.

Wedded in St. Mary's.

On Thursday morning, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Miss Emma Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, was united in marriage to Edward Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Graham. Rev. Father Hanley officiated. The bride was unattended. She wore a smartly tailored suit of blue serge, with hat to match. The presents were numerous, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. After the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them, and then they left for their future home at Maple Lawn.

Caused a Surprise.

Merchants received a surprise when they learned that an additional tax was to be imposed upon tea, coffee and sugar. Wholesalers had figured upon increases, and had laid in stocks as far as possible. It was a delightful surprise to the consumers, however.

When a woman marries for wealth she sells herself to the highest bidder.

EXONERATES THE GENERAL.
Not Responsible for French Evacuation of Lille.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The French war minister, M. Millerand, has sent the following note to General Percin, who was commander of the French troops at Lille prior to its occupation by the Germans.

"I have the honor to give you confirmation in writing of our interview of February 5th, that it has been absolutely established that you were in no way responsible for the evacuation of Lille in the month of August, 1914. Regarding your desire to be recalled to active service, you are in the same category as other reserve officers, who will be recalled as soon as needed."
