FLAGS HAVE ARRIVED

FOR PRESENTATION TO THE 21ST BATTALION.

Major R. A. Duff Will Represent the Governor-General At the Presentation Ceremony on Monday Night

The flags that will be presented to the 21st Battalion on Monday evening have arrived and are models of workmanship. They will be put on exhibition so that the citizens will be given an opportunity to see them before the ceremony.

At the ceremony St. Paul's Church choir of forty voices will sing the Te Deum. Rev. J. W. Forrester, chaplain of the Veterans' Association, and Major, the Rev. J. W. MacIntosh, of Lanark, will be present, among others. Rev. Mr. MacIntosh is chaplain of the 42nd Regiment and to him perhaps more than anyone else goes the honor of securing the largest number of recruits for the 21st Battalion.

Owing to the extra expense that the Veterans' Association has been under in securing the flag for the 22nd Battery before the contracted time and other unforeseen expenditures, $50 will be asked for by the association from the Carnival committee.

Major R. A. Duff, A.D.C., to the governor-general, who was wounded in the battle of the Mons, will be present at the ceremony on Monday and will represent the governor-general, who owing to parliamentary duties, is unable to be present.

MUST CHANGE BOXES.

Farmers Are Told That They Must Act Soon.

When the parcel post was commenced it was found that the old style boxes were not large enough to hold parcels. The authorities ordered that these boxes be changed to a larger type, the difference in cost being borne by the owner. The residents throughout the country refuse to pay the difference, and, on Friday, a registered letter came to each one that had refused saying that unless the boxes were changed by the first of April the full cost would have to be paid by the owner and the government would not then accept the old boxes as part payment. A number of the farmers have become indignant at this high-handed method and refuse to change the old boxes.

A Y. M. C. A. Concert.

A musical concert was enjoyed in the Y.M.C.A. building on Thursday evening, by a good-sized audience. The proceeds were in aid of the boys' division, to purchase a new roquet table. A fair sum was realized and the management deeply appreciates the liberality of the audience.

The programme consisted of vocal solos by Miss Edna Singleton, Mrs. J. Evans, Miss M. King, Miss Margaret Fearn, Kenneth Blake and James Saunders; recitations by William McFriedge, Mrs. E. Craig and Miss Mayell; violin solo by Mr. Munro; piano solo by John McLaughlin; a mouth organ duet by the Messrs. Routhy brothers; euphonium solo by Mr. Hughes, of the Salvation Army band, and a musical monologue by Kenneth Blake.

CAPT. LEO GUTTMAN AT THE WAR OFFICE

He Writes That He Has Helped to Design Three Big Factories.

Capt. Leo F. Guttman, who went overseas with the first Canadian contingent, writes as follows to his colleagues and students in the science faculty of Queen's:

"I am very sad at being separated from my contingent and company, but quite see that I am of much more use in my present capacity at the war office, and am doing my duty. You can guess what I am there for. So far I have designed or helped to design three big factories, and do not yet know whether I shall be permitted to rejoin my regiment in two or three weeks, or whether I am to be kept for another three or four months. A little while ago an urgent desire was expressed that I build and run some very huge works indeed. They are of vital importance, but I hope the authorities will find a more practical man. At present I am investigating the scientific conditions underlying the manufacture."
