COULD SHOULDER GUN

AND GO TO FRONT IF NEEDED SAID PROF. LAW.

Addressing Farewell Meeting Of Y.M.C.A., To Members of 21st Battalion In Sydenham Street Church—Declared Men Were Fighting Battle For Christ.

"I envy you your privilege of going to the front," said Prof. Robert Law, of Knox College, Toronto, addressing the members of the 21st Battalion, at the farewell service held for them in Sydenham street Methodist church Sunday afternoon by the Y.M.C.A.

"But do you know," added Prof. Law, "if it was absolutely necessary I believe that I could shoulder a rifle and do a little bit with the rest of you, in spite of the fact that I am now well up in years. At any rate I have two sons going with you to the front."

"You have been thrust into the midst of a great crisis," added the speaker, "and you need God more than you ever needed Him before. You are taking your life in your hands, and at the same time a great responsibility. You need courage. Are you fit for it? Will you think about this great question?"

"We are fighting on God's side. God is with us. This is a tremendous thing to say, but it is right. This is a war between right and wrong,—between Christ and anti-Christ. We are on the right side. You will be engaged in a fight for what is right. You will be engaged in a holy war. You will be fighting for Jesus Christ. This fight is not only for to-day, but for future generations, to decide whether German militarism and brutality will dominate this world of ours for generations. This is the question at issue. And it is for this cause you will be fighting. I envy you this privilege of fighting for such a cause."

"The work you are engaged in will require the spirit of sacrifice. And that is the spirit we all need. You are ready at any time to give of your time, your talents, and your means, and if necessary your life, on the altar, in this hour of duty."

"This is the spirit you soldiers need, and no doubt have. What is a soldier? Some regard a soldier as a butcher—a man whose business it is to kill. A soldier is a man who is ready to go the whole way along the path of sacrifice. He takes his life in his hand, and is ready to lay it down for his country and his God. That is the true soldier, and I am sure that you are all soldiers of that kind."

Prof. Law also spoke of the hardships the soldiers would have to endure and referred to the many sacrifices they were making in leaving all that was near and dear to them at home. He appealed to them to have courage, and strength, and concluded his remarks with the words, "Ac thy faith, so shall thy strength be."

All the seats in the main auditorium were reserved for the members of the battalion, and the gallery was left open to the public, and it was well filled. The men made an excellent showing on the march to and from the church, and the parade was witnessed by a very large number of citizens.

E. W. Skipner, chairman of the religious work committee of the Y.M.C.A., presided at the service, and members of the Y.M.C.A., Male chorus occupied the choir seats. After the opening hymn, "Soldiers of Christ Arise," prayer was offered by Capt. the Rev. W. E. Kidd, chaplain of the 21st Battalion. Two very fine solos were rendered by William Eva and Harold Angrove. The programme included the hymns, "Jesus Calls Me," and "O Jesus I Have Promised," the service concluding with the national anthem. R. R. F. Harvey presided at the organ.

Great Deal Of Coughing

An evidence of how many people are suffering from colds was given at Sydenham street Methodist church Sunday afternoon, during the service which was conducted for the soldiers. While Prof. Robert Law was speaking, there was continual coughing, and at times it was impossible to hear the speaker. At one point in his address, Prof. Law asked the audience to refrain from coughing if it were at all possible.

Trust to chance and your chances are likely to be few and far between.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't buy. Pape's Diapepsin is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and urinate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick, sure, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

SERVICE IN ST. LUKE'S

In Memory Of the Late Dr. Marshall J. Brown.

A memorial service for the late Dr. Marshall J. Brown, who died last Sunday night, was held in St. Luke's Anglican Church on Sunday evening, Canon R. S. Forneri, an intimate friend of the deceased officiating. As his text the rector chose Philippians I: 21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

In opening his discourse the Canon said: I dedicate this service to the departed and devoted member, Dr. Marshall Jacob Brown. His loss is not only felt by the church but it is a personal loss as well to those who knew him. Not only by a few but by many, which was shown by the lengthy cortege that followed his remains to Cataract cemetery on Tuesday morning last.

Canon Forneri said that the deceased had been an eminent county physician, and at many times had exposed himself to dangers. However as the late Dr. Brown had sheltered the church and always taken its teachings wherever he went likewise God had taken care of him to live peacefully unto a good old age. The deceased's connection with St. Luke's Church dated back almost to its foundation.

Appropriate hymns were sung at this service and included, "Peace, Perfect Peace," "Now the Labourer's Task is O'er," and "On the Resurrection Morning." Mrs. H. A. Betts sang a solo, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me."

POLICEMEN ARE DEIFIED

By Boys in Martello Tower in the Harbor.

A lively chase was made by one of Kingston's policemen on Sunday afternoon after some boys who were making merry in the martello tower opposite the city buildings. Three of these offenders had climbed inside by making use of a ladder and began to throw various articles. The police were notified and a guardian of the law was sent forth. The boys were too much for the policeman however, and when the latter attempted to climb the ladder he was shaken off and the ladder pulled inside. The boys defied the peeler, and while one stayed at the door of the tower making excuses to him, the other two boys slipped down the rope on the opposite side of the tower. The third party then "beat it" from parlaying with the policeman and also went down the rope. After all three were at a safe distance down the ice in the harbor, they shouted to the policeman to take off his boots and chase them. The "bobby" did so, but he could not overtake the culprits, who escaped.

Another Successful Graduate.

The Montreal Mail says: Lieut. Oliver Wheeler, mentioned for bravery, is a nephew of W. T. and James Macoun, of the experimental farm, Ottawa, and received his early education there before he entered the Royal Military college. After graduating, he received a commission with the Indian Sappers, and has been at the front with his regiment since the beginning of hostilities. Mr. Wheeler is the only son of A. O. Wheeler, the well-known scientist and mountaineer, now president of the Canadian Alpine club, and a member of an old Ottawa family who is now living at Sydney, Vancouver Island.

Vaudeville At the Grand.

The new programme for Monday will be the distinguished comedian May Irwin, in her greatest comedy success, "Mrs. Black is Back," in four acts of motion pictures. There will also be presented a Keystone comedy entitled, "Hello Mabel," and the Mutual two reel drama, "Jimmy." The vaudeville will include, "Revolving Collars," in a novelty skating act, and Keeney and Mack in comedy singing and exponents of Nuttall. The above will be given at Monday's matinee and evening entertainments and Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons only, as on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, there will be patriotic concerts.

The Coming Of "Milestones"

"Milestones," a play from England, which found much favor in New York when transplanted from British soil, is to be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, on Thursday, February 25th. So much was it liked in the American metropolis that it ran out the season at the Liberty Theatre and it has been equally well received in Boston and Chicago. "Milestones" is really a new species of the genus play. No penetrating analysis is required to reduce it to its component parts, three separate and distinct one-act plays. Each act is a rounded essay in the dramatic form, done with remarkable smoothness and naturalness.

Ladies' Musical Club.

In convocation hall on Saturday afternoon, a fine programme was rendered under the auspices of the Kingston Ladies' Musical Club. The Misses Fairlie and Kaapp had charge of the programme, which included piano solos by Miss Ardele Elder, R. M. Chase and Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson, vocal solo by Mrs. R. E. Reaman, Miss Mary Chalmers, Miss Carrie Bajus, and violin solos by J. Gilles.

They Looked Fine.

The members of the Pipers' Band of the 21st Battalion appeared in their new uniforms for the first time at the church parade to Sydenham Street Church Sunday afternoon, and made a very neat appearance. The uniforms were secured as a result of a subscription, contributed by the officers and men of the battalion.

E. P. Jenkins, Kingston, has disposed of his stock of men's furnishings in Westport. The business was purchased by W. J. Wing, who, with Messrs. Robert W. and Earl Wing, will continue.
