THE COURT ROOM CROWD

CHEERED FOR ACQUITTAL. Mar. 5th, 1915 79 Clarence St. (Continued from Page 1.) Not in many a day has the town of Napanee been so stirred as during the three days of the trial this week. The case was the one topic of conversation in every quarter. The hotels were crowded with jurors, witnesses and spectators, gathered from various centres. The case, from the start, caused keen interest, but the climax came with the storming of the court house to hear the evidence. Never in the history of the court house has there been such a crowd of spectators at the hearing of
