

The New Frontenac Beer

Trianon—named after Anne de la Grange-Trianon Countess of Frontenac

LA DIVINE Anne de la Grange-Trianon famous as the Countess of Frontenac was the wife of the Comte de Frontenac, the greatest governor that France ever gave to French Canada. She was a beautiful woman, arbiter of elegance and fashion and had even more charm than beauty according to our historians. At the Court of Louis XIV she was known as "The Divine."

"No one woman," writes M. Alfred Garneau, a well known French writer, "queen or subject, was more amiable and more loved than she. All her life, she was surrounded by flatterers, but she was as proud as Diana and held her sceptre high—it never escaped her hands". Like this grand dame of superlative qualities—the new TRIANON BEER will hold high the sceptre of quality and will hold it against all competitors. It will maintain always the same high place in the estimation of the Canadian people that "The Divine" Anne de la Grange-Trianon held in her day. The prize of $100 in gold for what we consider to be the best name has accordingly been awarded to EUGENE ROUILLARD, Geographical Department, Parliament Buildings, Quebec, for the name:—

Frontenac Trianon

Below are the names of the 500 people who have each been awarded a six bottle carton-case of FRONTENAC TRIANON—Canada's new delicious "BROWN LABEL" and wholesome strong dark beer.
