"QUITE SIMPLE"

For Canadians to Take a German Trench.

THEY CREEPT FORWARD

TILL THEY WERE ALMOST ON TOP OF IT.

The Germans Were Surprised and Fled—One Canadian Killed, But the German Who Shot Him Was Caught by the Johnny Canucks.

(Special to the Whig.)
Toronto, March 11.—A Mail-Enterprise London cable says: An interesting description of the capture of a German trench by the Canadians has reached London in a letter from one of the wounded men who took part in the charge. The Canadian writer says:

"At 4 a.m. we were ordered to take a German trench, twenty-five yards away. 'Quite simple,' we were told. 'Just shake your bayonets and they will surrender.'"

"With four companions, besides two bomb throwers, I crept forward knee-deep in mud until we were almost on top of the enemy's trench. The Germans, who were apparently surprised at seeing visitors, fired a round at us and then fled. One of our men was shot outright, but we caught the German who hit him and settled his account. Not one of their lot escaped, I think."

"It was frightful, as the enemy all along the line started firing, also throwing hand grenades and employing machine guns, but we held the position long enough to enable our fatigue party to break down the trench. Then we slowly retreated, taking the dead and wounded with us. We were stepping into our trench when the machine gun caught me."

BLOW TO TURKISH FLEET

Russians Have Destroyed Chief Depot For Fuel.

Petrograd, March 11.—The bombardment by the Russians of Zunguldiak, on the south shore of the Black Sea, and the destruction of the docks there, as announced by the Russian naval authorities yesterday, constitute a serious blow to the Turkish fleet, since it is at this point that the Turks hitherto have drawn their chief supply of coal for the navy. It is reported semi-officially that in addition to silencing the batteries which defended the docks the Russian fleet also destroyed the coal chutes. Benderegl, forty miles to the west, which is another coaling port also was damaged.

War Tidings

Disension among the Socialists of Germany has led to a split in their party. On one side are the Socialists of the old school and on the other the National Reformists. The Russians appear to have successfully countered the German offensive on the Pilica river and in the Carpathians they are withstanding continued attacks along the whole front.

The prohibition against the importation of sugar into the United Kingdom from America and other neutral countries probably will be removed within two or three months. Balked at other points, the Germans are making another attempt to break through the Russian line of fortresses in Northern Poland. They are advancing from Kholm, on the East Prussian frontier, along the Orze river, and by the roads leading southward to Przasnysa.

An important faction of Hungarian deputies has presented a signed declaration to the Hungarian government asserting that the situation in Hungary, politically and economically, is desperate and that half of the Hungarian army has been destroyed, a number of the regiments having lost three-quarters of their strength. Ernst August, Duke of Brunswick, and son-in-law of Emperor William, is suffering from a nervous breakdown, which probably is incurable.

Lieut.-Col. Guy L. B. DuMaurier, son of the late George DuMaurier, the noted artist and writer, has been killed in action at the front. The militia department at Ottawa has issued a list of Canadian casualties, five killed on February 27th and three on the 1st. All are old countrymen serving in Canadian forces. There are twenty-six wounded, all old countrymen. On March 10th Pte. W. Arnold died at Queenstown from cerebro-spinal fever. He was on the 32nd Canadian Battalion. The news that only half of the die and joined the Allies may be expected at any moment.

General von Bandler, of Wurtemberg, who was wounded in the autumn, has died following an operation, in which his leg was amputated.

DEBATE IN LEGISLATURE

Toronto, March 11.—In the resumed debate in the Legislature, yesterday, on the bill to extend the municipal franchise to married women the feature was that the progressives had it practically all to themselves. The reaction on the part of those on the Government side was never more apparent, only one member from that side of the House rising to speak against the bill, while five Liberal members and Mr. Studholme advocated the proposed change. The Attorney-General's defence was particularly criticised, as was also the positions of Messrs. Macdunnald (Minister of Public Works), and W. J. Hanna (Provincial Secretary), both of whom were declared to be former supporters of a similar bill. The minister of Public Works, when reference was made to this, seemed uneasy, but Mr. Hanna merely grinned. The debate was adjourned and it is understood the principle of the bill will be forced to a division.

DEATHS IN THE CITY.

Late Mrs. Samuel Sleeth and Mrs. James Sleeth.

The death occurred at the family residence, 246 University avenue, early Thursday morning, of Sarah Ann Donnelly, wife of Samuel Sleeth, after a year's illness. The deceased was the mother of Eugene Sleeth, who is attached to the 21st Overseas Battalion, and who is now soon to leave for the front. Sixty-two years ago the late Mrs. Sleeth was born in New York city, and for the past twenty-five years she resided in Kingston. In religion she was a Presbyterian and a member of Cooke's church. A husband, five sons and two daughters survive: Eugene, Lawrence and Clifford, of this city; Samuel Sleeth, Toronto; Frederick Sleeth, Hamilton; the Misses Gertrude and Nellie, residing at home. On Saturday morning at ten o'clock service will be held at the deceased's late residence by Rev. J. W. McIntosh. The remains will later be taken to Sand Hill cemetery and placed in the vault.

The Late Mrs. Sleeth

Mary Jane Sleeth, widow of the late James Sleeth, passed away at her late residence, 304 Johnson street, on Thursday morning, after a brief illness. The deceased was born at Aughagloy, county Tyrone, Ireland, and came to Canada when a girl of tender years. Since then Kingston was her home, where she was widely known. In religion she was a Methodist and member of Queen street church. The survivors are two sons and one daughter: Samuel A. McCammon, Rochester, N.Y.; D. J. McCammon, Chicago; Miss Minnie Sleeth, residing at home.

On Friday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock the funeral will be conducted from her late residence to Catawagui cemetery, and the remains placed in the vault. Rev. G. I. Campbell will officiate.

PROTEST BY LAURIER

AGAINST ANY BARRIERS ON BRITISH TRADE.

Liberalism Is Forced To Part Company With the Tory Government On the Budget Issue.

Ottawa, March 11.—The amendment moved by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the budget debate yesterday was as follows: "This House is ready to provide for the exigencies of the present situation and to vote all necessary ways and means to that end, but it regrets that in the measure under consideration duties are imposed which must be oppressive upon the people, whilst yielding little or no revenue, and that the said measure is particularly objectionable in the fact that, instead of favoring, it is placing extra barriers against Great Britain's trade with Canada at a moment when the mother country is under a strain of war unparalleled in history."

"Canadian Liberalism is not ready to do by the tariff what Germany seeks to accomplish by the submarine. It stands resolutely opposed to any proposal to put barriers on British trade."

"Britain is at war, Canada is at war. And when Britain is at war Canada goes to war to attempt to curtail the trade between Britain and Canada. That is not a Canadian idea. It is a German conception. We have been prepared since the outbreak of the war to go far with our friends on the other side of the House in these strenuous times. We were prepared to give up a good many of our own ideas in order to meet them and to have unanimity of opinion and action. But we are not prepared to go that far. That far we shall not go. Here we part company."

Such was the ringing declaration, punctuated by prolonged and enthusiastic Liberal cheering, with which Sir Wilfrid Laurier concluded a memorable speech in Parliament yesterday afternoon on the budget debate. The stand of Liberalism against tariff proposals which, under the color of "war taxes," benefit and profit the wealthy, privileged and protected classes at the expense of the general public, and which hit at British trade at a time when the mother country is confronted with the most momentous struggle in her history, was epitomized by the Liberal leader's amendment.

It took Hon. W. T. White some four hours to reply to Sir Wilfrid's ed very largely of condemnations of one-hour speech. His reply consisted of Liberal "extravagance" in the years of the Fielding surpluses, and of laudations of the present finance minister.

This Frees Your Skin From Hair or Fuzz
(Toilet Tip)
The method here suggested for the removal of superfluous hair is quick and certain and unless the growth is extremely stubborn a single application does the work. Make a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water; apply this to the hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub it off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To avoid disappointment, be sure your drug-gist sells you delatone.

Mrs. Wiseneighbor Says:

"I should have told you the other day when I was speaking of Eddy's washboards that it is just as necessary to have an indurated fibreware tub to hold your clothes if you want to make a success of wash-day."

Mrs. Newby says: "I've heard of Eddy's indurated fibreware. What's the difference between fibre and woodenware?"

"Fibreware is made from compressed fibre, baked at extreme heat. All in one solid piece, it cannot warp or fall apart. No chance of splinters. Wears much longer, looks better and is light to carry. The latter point you should always take into consideration," concludes Mrs. Wiseneighbor.

Insure Your Brains In The Canada Life

The able, efficient Manager is the brains of many a business. He is the firm's greatest asset. But the death of that Manager destroys this asset and may create a liability which will wreck the firm.

Sometimes a business with moderate capital makes greater headway than one much better equipped in that respect. The secret of its success is its superior management. How necessary it is, then, that the firm should be protected against the loss of this most important factor.

The Canada Life way of doing this is well worth your earnest consideration. Its partnership policy takes the risk from the firm. We shall gladly send you particulars.
