to this important post is an honour to Peterboro and to Miss Reid. Her name is on file at Ottawa as a volunteer for service at the front and until she is called she will have charge at Kingston.

The Hospital Training School Kingston serves when any of the soldiers in training there are in need of hospital attention.

Miss Reid has a host of friends in the city who wish her success in her new goods. new undertaking.

Grew Tropical Fruits Rev. Mr. Leigh, B.A., Methodist minister on the Rednersville circuit is an enthusiastic horticulturist says the Believille Ontario. The Rev. gentleman is a great admirer of plants, and takes great delight in growing them. At the present time Mr. Leigh has a lemon and orange tree in his house which he has grown from the seed both of which have fruit on. A short time ago Mrs. Leigh picked a ripe lemon from the one tree from which she made a lemon pie. On Tuesday of this week the W.M.S. met at the parsonage and Mr. Leigh picked from the orange tree a ripe orange and treated the ladies present each with a piece, who were loud in their praise of the deficious flavor of the fruit.

H. S. MAUNSELL CRAWLED INTO A GERMAN TRENCH

In Order To Lay a Mine-He is Royal Military College Graduate, And Has a Brother Now a Cadet.

Lieut.-Col. G. S. Maunsell, Ottawa, director-general of engineer services, who was in Kingston on Wednesday, has a son attending the Royal Military College, and it he proves as good a soldier as his brother, the family name will be well kept up.

H. S. Maunsell, who will be remembered as one of the best football players the R.M.C. ever had, is now a second lieutenant in the Royal Warwickshire Regiment, and has been mentioned in despatches. He is one of the most daring men at the front. At one time, in attempting to set a mine, he crawled into a May 11-11 a.m., Hillier; 3 p.m., German trench. He was trying to reach a certain position in the dark and worked his way ahead of one line of the German trenches to the second. Before he quite realized what had happened, he was among the Germans bailing water out of the trench. He worked away at this until he was able in the dark to quietly crawl to the place he wished

He has performed so many daring deeds that he has received a star already, and will no doubt be given a captaincy in his regiment.
