Accused Father Hung Himself In Wellington

Picton, March 22.—David Vandewater, Wellington, committed suicide by hanging himself this morning. Vandewater was accused, along with his son, of criminal assault on a young girl, and his trial was postponed till the fall assizes. The son was sentenced to two years at Guelph about a week ago, and the father was released on ten thousand dollars bail, to appear next fall.

SALVATION ARMY WORK.

Big Meeting In the Citadel on Sunday Afternoon.

The Salvation Army citadel was the scene of a very large gathering on Sunday afternoon. Colonel Gaskin, chief dominion secretary, and pro-W. F. Nickle, M.P., acted as chairman of the afternoon, after In speaking of the Salvation Army work Mr. Nickle said that if there

Alfred Brown opened with prayer. was less creed and more Christianity in the world we would have a better wotld. The number of paroles granted from the dominion pentten-tiaries and prisons was dealt with by the chairman. Thanks to the good services of the Salvation Army, out of 6,000 liberated only three per cent broke their parole.

Mayor Sutherland was called upon by the chairman to give a few remarks and introduced the speaker. of the day, Col. Gaskin. His worship stated that the Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin were his guests. The mayor emphasized the fact that the Salvation Army was a wonderful factor towards social betterment. Now more than at any other time was he convinced of this, being in a position to

Col. Gaskin said that if it not for the Salvation Army ld be no social work accomlished. Col. Gaskin gave a splendid address with regard to the good work being accomplished by the Army. He declared that the sooner the country prohibited the traffic the better it would be for the people. In closing he hoped time would come when all churches would adopt the penitent form where all true Christians would come and kneel at the altar, opening their sincere thanks to God.
