

To Keep the Face Fresh, Clear, Youthful

More important than the cosmetic care of the complexion is its physical care. To keep the face clean, fresh, youthful there's nothing better than common mercurized wax.

Picton

March 22—The officers and men (about sixty-three in all), paraded to the English church, along with the Home Guard and the Picton band, on Sunday. Rev. F. L. Barber preached.

Despite the mild weather people were still driving across the ice at Adolphustown on Saturday. Shipping is beginning to liven up things again here. Almost all the boats in the harbor are being fitted-out for the coming season. The Bertie Calkins, (Capt. L. L. Vandusen), is being fitted out. A new mast is being put in to replace the one lost in a gale last October.

Mrs. Thomas Hammett, an aged and respected resident of this town, died on Friday last. The remains were buried to-day.

The first Prince Edward county boy to be killed in action was Pte. Kenneth Spencer. His father resides in Concession, where a memorial service was held last Sunday. Rev. G. C. Williams conducted the service. Pte. Spencer enlisted with the Grenadier Guards in Montreal.

Corporal George Ittas, who enlisted here with the first contingent, returned to Picton to-day. Mr. Ittas was very disappointed in not reaching the firing line. He is British, through and through, but owing to the fact that he is a foreigner he was not permitted to go to France. He came within eighty miles of the firing line and was turned down by the British authorities before embarking for France. He reports well of the 16th Regiment.

There is quite an epidemic of measles in Picton. Over one hundred cases are reported in the Mary street school.

The remains of the late George H. Morrow, Hillier, were buried on Saturday. Deceased was visiting here and was taken ill of pneumonia. He was thought to be doing well but expired very suddenly, when his nurse was out of the room.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bristol are away in Bermuda for a month. Walter Mackenzie, county registrar, has been very ill. He is able to go out again now.

The new organ in the Roman Catholic church is to be opened on Easter Sunday. An organ recital will be given in the evening.

The present condition of affairs is to make itself felt in Picton this year. It is understood that all the canning factories will be closed with the exception of the Old Homestead. This will mean "hard times" for many people here, who are dependent on the canning industry.

"MY COUNTRY NEEDS ME."

CORPL. CAMERON MACKAY. With the above words on his lips and feeling strong as to his call to duty, Corpl. Cameron Mackay, of Renfrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mackay, aged nineteen years, a robust young man, inspired with Christian patriotism, joined the first contingent and after weary months on Salisbury Plain, over which he did not complain, but was a constant source of comfort and happiness to his fellows, he soon found the firing line. On Feb. 25th he wrote home, telling of his first experience in the trenches. He said he expected another call and it came, and on March 2nd he yielded up his life fighting for king and country he loved so much. Noble soldier! Glorious death!

Napanee

March 23.—A box car was broken into the other night at the Canadian Northern freight yards here, and a number of things were stolen, mostly eatables. Tramps are suspected of doing it. A C.N.R. detective with the assistance of the local police, is working on the case.

James Foster, the enterprising proprietor of the Moving Picture theatre here, is about to erect an opera house. The plans are expected to be completed this week. It will be built on the vacant lot on the corner of Dundas and Robert streets. The interior will be something like the Grand, Kingston, with one gallery, having seating accommodation for about eight hundred people. It is planned so as to be able to provide for such companies as go to Kingston. Building operations will commence as soon as the weather permits. This will mean a welcome addition to our town.

Mrs. Robert Milligan, Toronto, formerly of Napanee, is visiting her niece, Mrs. E. Miller, who is very ill. O. B. Jackson, Enterprise, was in town to-day, on his way to Bala, Ont., where he expects to get a contract to repair a washout on the C.P.R.

FEW MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, GAS SOUR STOMACH--PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Digests all food, absorbs gases and stops fermentation at once. Wonder what upset your stomach which portion of the food did the damage—do you. Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take Pape's Diapepsin, and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women to-day know it's unnecessary.
