GOING MAD FROM THE TERRIFIC PAIN

Prominent Merchant Thinks His Life Was Saved By "Fruit-a-tives",

DRYSDALE, ONT., JUNE 15th. 1913. "I am a general storekeeper at the above address, and on account of the great good I have experienced from using "Fruit-a-tives", I recommend them to my customers. They were a great boon to me, I can tell you, for about two years ago, I was laid up in hed with vomiting and a terrific pain at the base of my skull. The pain nearly drove me mad. Doctors feared it would turn to Inflammation of the Brain, but I took "Fruit-a-tives" steadily until I was cured. I have gained fifteen pounds since taking "Fruit-a-tives", and I verily believe they saved me from a disastrous ill-shoe inspector fulfills his whole duty when he is firm and positive. He should not stray into regions of pure I rhapsody, as, for example, when one of them blamed the whole thing on the soldier's feet. He said the shoes were heavy enough for the men who had to wear them; that they were purposely made light so the soldier's feet would get broken in. He passed over the fact that while the soldiers' feet were breaking in the shoes were breaking out; but that, as Mr. Kipling says, is another story. One gathered from his remarks that Canadian soldiers are as tender of their feet as moccasioned Indians, that the Dominion of Canada was combed for thirty-three thousand men who would their shoes to the extent of wearing them out in six weeks, that thirty-three thousand pairs of tendfeet had set out to prove that thirty-three thousand pairs of shoes could be tenderer still.
