THE SPORT REVIEW

"TOMMY" BURNS LOOKS TO WILLARD TO WIN.

Kenora is After the Allan Hockey Cup — Ottawa Has the Lacrosse Bug Again.

Shears, who, with Fisher, composed the giant battery last year for Hamilton, has signed with Jersey City of the International Baseball League.

Kenora is hot-foot after the Allan Hockey Cup for next season. The Mackenzie brothers are home again from Melville, and will likely stay at Kenora and play on next year's team.

Toronto Star: Ottawa has the lacrosse bug again. A new set of angels has the fever, and they are talking of a club under Alf Smith's management in the N.L.U., or whatever organization controls lacrosse in the East.

"Tommy" Burns, who lost the heavyweight championship to Johnson, expects Willard to recover it for the white race. He says: "Johnson I think, is the poorest champion we ever have had. On the defensive he is a great man, but he won't fight. Sting him and he'll run. A blow or two and doesn't hurt you he gets discouraged."

It is the intention of "Joe" Lally to have the O.A.L.A., senior series in the east composed of Ottawa, Cornwall, Prescott and Alexandria. Last year the group was made up of the Ottawa, Prescott, Carleton Place and Almonte, but the two latter teams proved drawbacks.

Edward Butler, the Toronto sculler, was all ready to come to Kingston with the University bombardiers but is unable to do so because of the illness of his mother. She is not expected to live. He has arranged with the officers to hold a place for him if it is possible for him to get away before the men sail.

Walter R. Knox, the Canadian all-around champion, who was to coach a Colorado college athletic team this season, has decided to remain in Orilla. He and Thomas Millard have taken over the Duly House poolroom. Knox will get in shape to meet all-comers.

Ottawa made $5,000 last season, won the N.H.A. title lost the Stanley Cup series, and will strengthen up with Ottawa Valley youngsters. It is announced in Ottawa that Shore, Merrill, Lowry, and Darraghi will be passed up next fall. The Ottawas have gone to Portland, Oregon, to play an exhibition series.

Although the official figures are not yet available for the world's championship hockey series at Vancouver receipts, it is semi-officially announced that over 15,000 spectators took in the three games. The players received 60 per cent, of the receipts, after $2,500 had been deducted for the Ottawas' travelling expenses, and the winners took the big end of this. Each member of the champion Vancouver team will get approximately $200 for his efforts in the big series, while the Ottawas will each draw down in the neighborhood of $200 for this work.

Late James Campbell, Portsmouth. The funeral of the late James Campbell, Portsmouth, who died on Monday, was held on Wednesday afternoon, to Catawagi cemetery, where the remains were buried in the family plot. Three cousins, two brothers-in-law, and a nephew of the deceased acted as pall-bearers. These were respectively: R. J. Carson, William Carson, Thomas Carson, H. E. Walker, James Watson and H. Clarke. A short service was held at the deceased's late residence, after which the remains were taken to St. James' Anglican church, where Rev. J. D. Crisp officiated, assisted by Archdeacon D. G. Dobbs. The cortege was a lengthy one and included the village council, whose members turned out in a body. The floral tributes were numerous.

THE RAILWAY SYSTEM

OF GOVERNMENT MAY BE MUCH EXTENDED.

Hon. George P. Graham Thinks Hon. Frank Cochrane's Resolution Very Far-Reaching—It Gives Minister Too Much Power.

Ottawa, April 1.—Big railway problems will shortly confront Canada. These may involve a mammoth extension of the Government railway system, according to hints thrown out in Parliament's all-day Wednesday discussion of the Government resolution to authorize the leasing or otherwise acquiring of the Lake Superior branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific. The resolution provides that the Government's railway acts shall apply to any line of railway so leased or acquired, and that the expenditure shall be a charge against the consolidated revenue fund.

In presenting the preliminary resolution, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways, stated that he was advised by the Chief Engineer of the National Transcontinental that the road was now complete for operation. The Government, he said, had no desire to run the road, but preferred the Grand Trunk Pacific to take it over. It was necessary, however, to make provision for the emergency which would arise in case the lease was not accepted by the C.P.R., and accordingly the present Parliamentary action was being taken. Mr. Cochrane said it was impossible in advance to estimate the cost of operating the road, and consequently general power was taken to provide the necessary funds. If conditions continue as at present, the Government would be able to use much of the rolling stock of the Intercolonial in the operation of the road acquired. Hon. George P. Graham declared the resolution to be very far-reaching. It gave the Minister power to appropriate not only the Lake Superior branch and its elevators, but also the elevators of any other railway without the consent of the parties now owning them.

At a late hour $5,000,000 was voted for the N.T.R. and $5,500,000 for the Hudson Bay Railway. In connection with the latter it was stated that thirty-seven vessels had passed in and out of the straits during the past season, though there was a late opening.

The injured soldier, in company with a comrade, was handling the weapon when it suddenly told what it could do. Had the discharge been a little higher the result would have been more serious. Pte. Jenkins immediately made his way to the nearest doctor and had his injuries attended to. He was able to be around on Thursday.

ESCAPED DEADLY TORPEDO.

British Steamer Cambridge Pursued by Submarine.

Liverpool, April 1.—Badly damaged, but able to navigate, the British steamer City of Cambridge, crept into port yesterday with her battered sides and superstructure, giving mute evidence of the effectiveness of an attack made by a German submarine Sunday evening.

The City of Cambridge, a vessel of 3,844 tons, hailing from Glasgow, attempted to run from the submarine when it was sighted, but was overtaken about forty miles from Bishop and Clerk's Island, off the Pembroke coast.

"That we were not sunk was almost a miracle," said Captain Fry when he landed. "The submarine tried to sink us for an hour, but we finally escaped when darkness fell.

"We first sighted the submarine when 300 feet from starboard. We made off at full speed, but the submarine fired a shell that struck us on the starboard side. It smashed three plates and penetrated the hull, wrecking three cabins.

"Finding that we could not outrun the submarine, the ship cruised about in a circle, keeping in the wash of the submarine, which kept up a continual firing. Several shells struck, but failed to sink us, and after an hour we escaped in the darkness."

Captain Fry declared that if his vessel carried a small gun it would have been able to sink the submarine.

One of the City of Cambridge's boats was missing when she arrived here, several plates were missing from her side, several of her cabins were strewn with wreckage and the after deck was torn up.

"APRIL FOOL!"

It's a sad sort of "April Fool" when a retailer tries to persuade you not to buy the article you want, but to take something "just as good."

Up-to-date merchants avoid this style of joking. It is not good business.

Substituting has been relegated to the past with the doctrine of caveat emptor, short weighing, and other irregularities.

There is more profit in a satisfied customer than in the few extra pennies to be made from a "substituted" article.
