

HAD A SNOW STORM

CORPORAL MURRAY WRITES LETTER IN THE TRENCHES.

Big Advance Will Be Made and Then It Will Be Good-Bye To the Germans the Writer Says—Believes—Get Plenty Of Tobacco.

"We are in the trenches now," writes Corporal S. J. Murray, the First Contingent, in a letter to his father, Mrs. J. Murray, 224 Montreal street. "We had a snow storm and the trenches are filled with mud again, but the boys are all happy."

Corporal Murray states that the men get plenty of tobacco, as it is issued to them every time they go into the trenches. He says he does not think the war will last much longer. "We have them beaten now," he adds. "I suppose you heard about the advance the British made the other day when they captured Nevre Chappelle, I guess they will soon make another big advance and then it will be good-bye to the Germans."

Watts is in hospital in England, having been wounded in a battle. He asserts that he has seen all the active service he wants to see for a long time.

Seven days furlough is granted to everyone who has been to the front. Now that Pte. Watts is in England he hopes to make a visit to Ireland when he recovers sufficiently.

IROQUOIS CLUB BANQUET

Held in Frontenac Hotel On Monday Night.

The third annual banquet of the Iroquois Club was held in the dining hall of the Hotel Frontenac on Monday night, and was one of the most successful that has ever been conducted by this flourishing organization. The Iroquois colors, red and white, were conspicuous.

President J. Barrett opened the banquet with an address of welcome, which was followed by a toast to "The Pope," proposed by Leo Oldin. A toast to "The King" was next in order, and was proposed by E. F. Martin. Speeches were given by J. F. Kane and J. E. Sullivan.

THE 21ST TO LEAVE

VERY SOON FOR OVERSEAS, LT.-COL. HUGHES SAYS.

The Men Cheered When the Announcement Was Made—No Definite Time Has Yet Been Set, However.

At the close of the returns of the Johnston-Willard fight received at the recreation rooms of the right half of the 21st Battalion on Monday afternoon, Lieut.-Col. W. S. Hughes said a few words to the men that brought loud cheers. He said that while no definite word had yet come, in the near future he expected that the battalion would be leaving for the front and take its place among the British troops on the firing line. The band was in attendance and the soldiers marched out of the building singing "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue" and other patriotic songs.

Pte. A. Gauld, with the First Camerons at the front, has written cards to Kingston friends. He was at one time in the R.C.H.A.

MARRIED FIFTY-THREE YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flynn, Mountain Grove, Ar. Well.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flynn, Mountain Grove, celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of their marriage on April 6th. Both are in good health. They had a family of five sons and five daughters, and all are living but two. Mr. Flynn has been a subscriber to the Kingston British Whig for fifty-three years.

Mr. Flynn has been one of the most successful farmers of North Frontenac. He was born in Dublin and with his father, Thomas Flynn, came to this country when he was two years of age. During his life time he did not spend more than three years in this city, going into the country at an early age. He became reeve of Olden in 1871 and was re-elected for years after wards. He also served in the County Council and became warden of Frontenac.

Mr. Flynn used to say that the extent of his Public School education was limited to three months, but after he grew up he studied hard and became a self-educated man, being well-informed on public matters and developing into a good speaker. In 1860 his father published a small paper in Kingston called the Kingston Mail, the office of which was in a room above Crawford & Walsh's store. Thomas Flynn will be remembered by the older generation of Kingstonians as having been an auctioneer on the market for several years.

AT THE GRAND.

"Bringing Up Father," Matinee and Night.

So runs the title of Gus Hill's latest singing and dancing carnival of fun, founded on George McManus's famous cartoon of the same name. Comes to the Grand on Wednesday April 7th matinee and night. The fact of "Bringing Up Father" being a Gus Hill production, lends it an importance and a surety of success which no other name would suggest.

BIG CROWD AT GRAND

For the Splendid Vaudeville Bill That is Offered.

A capacity audience was present at the Grand Opera House last evening to witness one of the best vaudeville and picture programmes put on so far this season. "Little All Right," the Japanese juggler, did some clever work. His balancing on pickets, on wine glasses, and on glasses between his toes, and forming a pyramid with glasses, won for him vigorous applause.

Leonard and Frances made a great hit in their musical act. Miss Frances, who possesses a fine tenor voice like a boy's, sang two songs, "Way Back Home" and "Consequence," while Mr. Leonard gave several selections on the cornet and French horn.

The Paramount photo-play, in five acts, featuring Marguerite Clark in "The Goose Girl," a beautiful drama of love and adventure in the realms of romance, held the interest of the audience. The real Mutual photo-play was "Nipped," a Mexican episode. A English play was also presented, "Outlined and Outwitted." The Keystone comedy was "Cursed By Her Name," the same bill will be presented this evening.

Thursday afternoon there will be a matinee, with vaudeville and photo-plays.

HAS MADE GOOD.

"Pud" Hamilton Wins High Honors At The Soo.

"Pud" Hamilton, well known to many Kingstonians as a hockey and football player, having served on the old Granite, is receiving a great deal of praise for his success at the American Soo.

"Pud," or William E. Hamilton, as he is known in private life, coached the hockey team at the American Soo to victory this year and incidentally acted as manager of a team which won the amateur championship of the United States and the $2,000 McNaughton cup. The team which went through eighteen games, undisturbed and secured eight successive "shut-outs." To "Pud" goes all the credit. As an adviser he is hard to beat, and it is his coaching on the sidelines and is pulling off something to better than all.

He knows every player, studies him, his team all the time. The newspapers at the Soo have given him great praise for his work, and his many friends in Kingston are very glad to hear of his success. He has coached the Soo team to victory now for two years.

Must Disarm Germany. London Chronicle.

We are bound to admit that if ever a people identified itself with its Government's acts, the people of Germany (including the mass of her Socialists) have done so in this instance; and, further, that unless Germany is so far "conquered" as to be disarmed, Europe will reap no long peace.

The desire of the defeated Germany after the war must be to divide the Allies, and set them quarrelling for her advantage. The Allied statesmen will be insane if they leave her the power to do so.

Wheats, Oats, Meats. Toronto News.

All kinds of foodstuffs will be in demand for the next year or two, but emphasis may perhaps be placed upon wheat, oats and meats. These are especially required to supply the British market and the armies at the front.

From the highest authority we have it that the oat crop should not be sacrificed even for wheat. The feeding of thousands of army horses calls for a vast quantity of the coarser grain.
