Wanted Policeman to Hurry Up As Soon As Possible.

Five little tots, three girls and two boys rushed into the police station shortly after 10 o'clock on Friday morning.

"What's the trouble?" asked Constable Samuel Arnel, who is always on deck when there is anything doing.

"Well, there's a man living up near our place who will not let us skip on the sidewalk. He's after us all the time and he's spilling all our fun."

Constable Arnel had to smile although the little visitors were quite serious in their complaint.

"Just come up and scare the oil fellow," broke in one of the youngsters.

"What will I care him with?" asked the constable.

"Just show him your gun," said the "kid" with a twinkle in his eye.

Constable Arnel assured his deputation that the matter would resolve the serious consideration of the police department, and after he treated the "kids" to some sweets they departed feeling satisfied that "the mean old man" who they termed him, would be attended to.
