TWO YEARS IN PRISON A HOME WAS BURNED

FOR NOAH WOOD, HARROW-SMITH FOR HORSE STEALING.

Traded Another Man's Horse And Was Arrested In Attempting To Sell The Second Horse He Got.

"Two years in penitentiary," said Judge Lavell in passing sentence for horse-stealing on Noah Wood, Harrow-Smith, on Monday morning in the power to distinguish between honesty and dishonesty in his desire to get money for whiskey. A few weeks ago he was passing through Flinton and asked James Delph of that place for a horse as explained he wanted to attend the burial of his child at Catarqui. The request was granted, but instead of going to the cemetery he applied to several people in an attempt to sell the animal. At last he met William Simpson and traded Delph's horse for his receiving $1.50 to boot. He took Delph's horse to Harrow-Smith and tried to sell it, but was arrested in the attempt for whiskey.

Wood has a bad record. He has served a year in Central Prison, beside other smaller terms and the judge thought his plea of drunkenness was not sufficient to allow him his freedom.

His wife left him about three weeks ago and his three children are now in the care of an aunt in the city. He admitted to the court that after his wife had left him he brought the children to the city and had got drunk and a friend had to take the children to friends until he became sober enough to take care of them.

It was also brought out that he had been on trial for stealing a bicycle but the plaintiff in that case had died before the case came up. A. B. Cunningham acted for the accused and J. L. Whiting conducted the prosecution.

The Barrieffield Camp to Open On May 15th

Barrieffield camp will open on May 15th. This is the first definite information that has been received. Only overseas troops will be stationed there besides the P.A.S.C., which will of course look after the supplies. The name of the commandant of the camp has not yet been made public.

It is understood that the 38th Battalion, Belleville, and the 8th Regiment, C.M.R., will be stationed here. Any other battalion that is mobilized will also come.

There is a great deal of speculation as to whether the artillery will be in camp at Barrieffield or at Petawawa. The latter place is claimed to be more adaptable as it is impossible to have any extensive gun practice at the local camp, but if all the infantry come here the two branches should have a chance to work together.

HELPING THE BELGIANS.

This is in addition to the large amount of clothing which has been forwarded from time to time by people of Kingston to help the sufferers.

The vaudeville will include Miss Annetta Link in a singing and dancing act, and "Jack Morrissey and Company, Australia's premier stock whip, lasso and sharp-shooting expert. This bill will be shown on Monday night and on Wednesday afternoon and night but not on Tuesday, when the big musical comedy "Mutt and Jeff in Mexico" will be seen at the Opera House.

A GERMAN SUSPECT ARRESTED AT NAPANEE

By Order of Col. Hemming—Had Joined Mounted Rifles and Was Discharged.

Napanee, April 19.—Carl Kessler, thirty-five years of age, a German subject, was arrested at Napanee on Sunday by order of Col. T. D. R. Hemming, Kingston. To the police here he told a long rambling story of his having a farm in the west, and that he was married and his wife would not stay with him; also that he had worked at Sharbot Lake and that he was a shoemaker, and admitted that he had joined the Mounted Rifles from Kingston just recently. He said that he was discharged, came to Napanee on April 9th, and applied to Lieut. G. P. Hoffmann to join the Fourth Contingent. He was passed, but nothing was seen of him since the 10th until Saturday, and he could not give any satisfactory account of his absence. His actions were suspicious, and upon information from Kingston he was placed under arrest by the local police and will be taken to Kingston to-day by Lieut. G. Stratton for examination.

WHILE HUSBAND AND WIFE WERE ON KINGSTON MARKET.

Children Saved Some Effects—An Infant Was Rescued By The Eldest Of The Children.

While Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton were selling produce upon the Kingston market on Saturday, their home, one and one-half miles east of Odessa, was burned to the ground and only a few small articles were saved by the children, who were left behind. It is thought the fire originated from a defective chimney and considerable headway was made by the blaze before the children noticed it. As soon as they did they started in to rescue the household effects at first, not thinking of the little child who lay sleeping up stairs. Amid all the smoke, the eldest of the children groped her way to the top of the burning house and rescued the slumbering child from death. No sooner had the child and baby gotten down stairs when the roof caved in crashing down through a portion of the lower flat. Neighbors who had been attracted lent a helping hand and kept the flames from spreading. It is reported that there was no insurance on the house.

A JUVENILE AUXILIARY Has Been Formed By The Kingston Humane Society.

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of Kingston Humane Society, held last Thursday afternoon, a number of members of the new auxiliary to the society were enrolled, consisting of members of the Band of Mercy in the Public Schools, who are interested in the objects of the society, and willing to aid it by scout work in reporting any cases of the ill-treatment of animals that may come under their observation. Kingston is not so free from this evil as it is to be desired, and abuse of horses has been a good deal in evidence of late, especially among young drivers of delivery wagons, who should not be allowed to drive until better instructed in their duties.

The attendance of auxiliary members represented four of the Public Schools, one being represented by the President of its Band of Mercy, and it is hoped that all will be at future meetings, though all boys and girls willing to act will be welcomed. The next meeting a month hence is expected to be of special interest, as there will be the election of office bearers, and some interesting first-hand information is expected concerning the wild animals of our own North-West.

"THE HIDDEN HANDS."

Second Installment of "The Black Box."

The second episode of the Universal Special Feature Serial, "The Black Box," which will be shown at the Ideal Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, contains situations which surpass in interest anything ever before attempted in motion pictures. In the film the latest invention of science, the phototelegraph, is used with telling effect. Mysterious hands float out of the darkness and rob a woman of her necklace of jewels; an anthropoid ape skeleton is stolen and Sandford Quest, criminologist, is hard pressed to unravel the mysteries which confront him.

If you did not commence last week, it is not too late to start with this episode and follow it to the end. It will pay you. At Ideal Theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

The Civic Finance Committee at its meeting on Thursday evening will likely recommend that the recently passed dog by-law be amended. It has been reported by the City Treasurer that as the by-law now stands, the City Council will lose hundreds of dollars a year.
