INSPECTION OF TROOPS GRAND

WAS MADE HERE BY THE MINIS-TER OF MILITIA.

Who Told the 21st Battalion That It celled.

G. P. Murphy and Capt. J. Bassett, Ottawa, arrived in the city on Thursday morning from Ottawa and made an inspection of the troops here. "C" Battery, R.C.H.A. was inspected on Tete de Pont Barracks Square before leaving for Barriefield," and No. 5 Company, Canadian Engineers, and the 21st Battalion marched to Barriefield about eight o'clock. The inspection of the Enspection of the Battalion.

At the close of the inspection, the Minister addressed the soldiers. His first words were rather a surprise. Nickle, M.P., was present, and turning to him the Minister said: "I am not making any mistake, am I Mr. Nickle, when I say that the citizens of Kingston have appreciated having the battation in the city this past winter? I know that it has been one of the best behaved battalions that have ever been here, and Kingston has been a military city, filled with always well-behaved soldiers. Their conduct has shown that they are able to take care of themselves and the people have appreciated having you here and will miss you when you

"By the records, the battalion has showing itself to have a very high shooting standard. What is needed at the front is accurate and rapid shooting. The war now is a game of brains even more than of physique. The soldiers must be well trained in mind as well as body.
