Queen's Students Leaving.
The students of Queen's University are leaving the city by every train. Owing to the conditions in Alberta and Saskatchewan no provisional certificates are being issued this year to students who are not fully qualified and wish to teach in the public schools for the summer. A number are qualified and they are about the only ones going west. With a great many there are no positions in sight and so they will spend the next few weeks at least at their homes, in a great many cases on their fathers' farms. A large number have volunteered for overseas service and are now in uniform.

Queen's University Sermon.
The Baccalaureate service will be conducted in Grant Hall tomorrow forenoon at eleven o'clock, by President Falconer, LL.D., of the University of Toronto.
The students, candidates for degrees, are requested to wear academic costumes. Student members of the various military units in the city are especially invited to attend.

Invited To Dance.
The students of Queen's University, to show their kindly feelings towards the students of Toronto University, who are here with the 26th Overseas Battery have invited them as a body to attend the farewell dance to be given in Queen's University on Monday evening.

Pigeons Being Trained.
Pigeon owners of the city are going in heavily for homing sport this summer. Almost every day birds are sent to outside places to be released. Old birds are sent with the younger ones for the training. On Thursday, H. Harkness sent his birds to Marysville and good time was made on the return.

Brock Street Hall Service.
Hear Richard Irving, Evangelist, Sunday evening in Brock Street Hall.

The head of the new Purchasing Commission, which the Government is going to appoint to deal with war materials, may be Hon. A. E. Kemp, member for East Toronto, and Minister without portfolio.
"No trouble to have a beautiful lawn." Kentucky Lawn seed will do it. Sold in Kingston at Gibson's.
In Saskatchewan, Dr. Neely, M.P., is leading an insurrection against the Scott Government liquor proposals.

OBITUARY

The Late Miss L. Cheetham
On Friday night the death occurred of Miss Laura Cheetham aged twenty years. Deceased was born at Venmacher and had been a resident of that place. For some time she underwent treatment in the Kingston Hospital but her condition gradually grew worse until death intervened. Through her sickness she was ever cheerful. The remains were transferred to Venmacher by R. J. Reid by the 11.30 o'clock C.P.R. train on Saturday morning.

The Late W. H. Sparham.
A lamented death occurred in the Sparham home, 476 Brock street on Friday night when the father, William Henry Sparham, passed away after a brief illness. The deceased was seventy-eight years of age and of late lived a retired life. In religion he was a Methodist. On Monday the funeral will be conducted to Catarqui cemetery.

The Late Miss Clare Corrigan.
On Friday evening, a sad death occurred in this city when Clare, second daughter of the late William Corrigan, passed away after a brief illness.
After graduating from Notre Dame Convent, Miss Corrigan took a position, which she since held, in the office of T. J. Rigney, barrister, this city.
Besides her sorrowing mother, she leaves to mourn her loss, one sister, Jennie, and three brothers, Arthur, George and Charles.
The funeral will be held to St. Mary's Cathedral on Monday morning.

PRESIDENT R. A. FALCONER, Of Toronto University, who will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon at Queen's on Sunday.

QUEEN'S EXAM. RESULTS.
As soon as the results are announced the Whig will publish the list of graduates and the honor list, but not the entire pass list. Orders for copies to be mailed will be carefully and promptly attended to. Price, including postage, 8c each.
