INCINERATOR SITE ON CITY'S POWER PLANT PROPERTY

Instead Of at the Waterworks, And Appoints Special Committee to See If the Commission Will Grant It.

The City Council seeks a small plece of ground on the Light, Heat and Power plant property on King. street as the site of the proposed garbage incinerator, and a special committee consisting of Mayor Sutherland and Alds. Wright, Fair and Richardson will have a conference this afternoon with the Utilities Commission with the view of prevailing upon that body to grant this necessary ground alongside the power plant and so save the necessity of otherwise establishing garbage headquarters on the Waterworks proper-

The Council had a lengthy discussion, Thursday night upon the Garbage Committee's report, submitted last Monday night by the Charrman, the aldermen to look into the mat-

The Canadian Courier, Toronto, remarks: Kingston, once old Fort Frontenac, has for two centuries been a centre of military life-but not militarism-in Canada. Naturally the old fort and plains adjacent are once again a centre of activity in preparing men for the front. Kingston is the nearest thing we have in Canada to West Point, fn the United States, or St. Cyr, in France. Many of the most brilliant Canadian officers now at the front and preparing to go were trained in the art of war at Kingston, where the strategic situation and the historic atmosphere made war a natural thing.
