

The Model Investment

Is one in which your principal sum never loses its value—you can secure your money the minute you need it. You can add to or withdraw from it when you like, and it pays interest with unfailing regularity.

Such an investment is a Savings Account in The Bank of Toronto. $1.00 and upwards opens an account, and the pleasure of watching your balance increase will stimulate further thrift and saving.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Happenings in the City and Vicinity—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig. Ald. W. H. Wormwith has purchased an auto of the Dodge pattern. Mrs. T. H. Cooke, Earl street, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Toronto. Charles Stevens, Nanapan, who underwent an operation in the General Hospital, is getting along nicely. Queen Street Methodist Church has a congregational gathering to-night for purely social fellowship. The Separate Schools will be repaired during the vacation and put in splendid shape. Joseph Hodge, certificated piano tuner, 336 Brock street. Phone 568. St. George's Cathedral congregation made a gift of $80 to the Belgian Relief Fund. The Board of Works awarded the contract for hose for flushing the paved streets to the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. John Peters has taken out a permit for the erection of a brick dwelling on the south side of Union street, between Beverly and Collingwood streets. H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuliffe Book Store. An automobile collided with a wagon on Montreal street, opposite the C.M.B.A. building and had one of its front wheels smashed off, about five o'clock Tuesday afternoon. To-morrow is Ascension Day. There will be holy communion in St. George's cathedral at 7.30 a.m., with evening prayer and a sermon at eight o'clock. Avoid harsh purgatives for children. The ideal laxative is Rexall Orderlies. Sold only by Geo. W. Mahood, the Rexall Store, 10c, 25c, & 50c boxes. In police court Wednesday morning, a merchant's clerk charged with theft, was remanded a day. One drunk was fined a dollar and costs and another was given a chance. G. P. Mercer, Royal Bank staff member, has been transferred to the Vars branch and promoted to the position of teller-accountant. Mr. Mercer has been in the local branch for the last year. The old derrick at the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's dry dock was torn down and a new travelling crane supplied it. The latter made its first trip around the track on Tuesday afternoon. There will be a rehearsal of "Lo, the Royal Cadet," on Wednesday evening, to make final arrangements for the production. Great care had been taken by the leaders, and the best production yet attempted of this play is promised. Frederick Brown, employed at the Kingston Paper Box Factory, was working on a cornering machine and had the first joint of the first finger on his right hand almost cut off. He was rushed to the General Hospital, where the joint was placed in position and bandaged. Miss L. Ryder, Bagot street, on Tuesday afternoon, received a telegram from her cousin, that he was scheduled to leave for Liverpool on Friday. The Lusitania, which is held responsible by officials. The Cymric will carry a crew of 550 men and only about sixty passengers. Stevedores yesterday began to load her with guns and ammunition for the British Government. It was said that about 10,000 tons of cargo will be stowed in her hold and that armored motor trucks will be lashed to her decks. On her last eastward trip, the Cymric carried much ammunition and no passengers. She is advertised, however, to take storage passengers on Friday. It was stated that Capt. F. E. Bendell, her master, was confident that the Admiralty will see that the Cymric is protected when she reaches the war zone. Conditions in West Coast. D. A. Cays, real estate agent, returned on Tuesday from an extensive trip through Western Canada, as far as Edmonton. He expressed himself as very optimistic and says that crops this year promise to be of the bumper variety. Everything in the west is resuming its old condition and the people there are very enthusiastic in saying that 1915 will be even better than any previous year, despite the war. The western city land values did not decrease much, if any, during the winter and are already beginning to advance. The country properties are excellent and are also increasing. Lad Broke Wrist. On Tuesday, Henry Popel, twelve years of age, residing near the corner of Raglan road and Barrie streets, met with a serious accident that resulted in a compound fracture of the left arm near the wrist. He had been out to the bush, off Montreal street, and when climbing over the fence his foot caught and threw him, causing him to alight heavily upon his wrist. He was taken to the Hotel Dieu where his injuries were dressed.
