Why is the New York World's suggestion not acted on that the President call to his aid the ex-Presidents and ex-members of the Government, Root, Knox, et al., who can advise him on the war. The Bryce Commission, which is generally accepted, makes the indictment of the German nation in respect of the Belgian autrocities usually powerful. Crime, premeditated; slaughter general; young and old people mutilated; women attacked; children brutally slain, and arson and pillage systematic; prisoners and wounded shot! What an infamous record!
