COMING TO THE GRAND

"A Pair Of Sixes" Will Be Produced On the 28th.

"A Pair of Sixes," which drew full houses of laughter at the Longacre Theatre, New York City, for nearly a year is to be presented by H. H. Frazee at the Grand Opera House, on Friday evening, May 28th. He H. Frazee, producer of many successes, has in "A Pair of Sixes" the funniest comedy in twenty-five years and it would seem that success begets success, for Mr. Frazee has never had a failure. "A Pair of Sixes" is something entirely different in without resorting to slap stick methods and the action as well as the dialogue is thoughtfully worked out, so that the plot is cumulative and excites continued interest until the drop of the final curtain.

Vaudeville Next Week. The vaudeville and pictures that have been secured for the Grand Opera House for the first three days of next week promise to be one of the best entertainments that will be seen at this popular theatre this season. The Famous Players Picture of Edward Ables in "After Five," a picturization of the modern comedy hit, by William C. and Cecil DeMill, a two-reel Mutual photo-play, and a one-reel Keystone comedy will be shown. The vaudeville will consist of Lohse and Sterling in a comedy acrobatic act entirely new from anything yet seen in the city, and Elsa Dale, violinist, in an act that will be well worth seeing. Owing to an unfortunate fire in the grand stand the old structure is entirely demolished and a new and up-to-date steel stand with a seating capacity of 5,000 people is in course of erection. This will very much add to the comfort and convenience of the visitors, as every seat will give a full view of everything taking place on the track and platform.
