VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND.
 Gaby Deslys in Photo-Play, Entitled "Her Triumph."
 The high standard and excellence of the programme at the vaudeville entertainment last evening drew a capacity audience.
 Jimmy Dodd displayed his ability as a musical artist by his high-class performance on a number of musical instruments. On the original French horn, he played "In Blossom Time"; on a miniature piccolo, "The Garden of My Heart"; on musical gloves with concealed automobile horns, he rendered a novelty number; on a maribaphone and xylophone combined, an instrument of his own conception, he sang a melody of popular airs. He used special scenery with a velvet drop covered with pennants.
 Rowley and Franciosa won favor by the excellence of their performance. Miss Francis sang "Dublin Bay". The pair's dancing was artistic. Their first dance was entitled "From Home to the Masquerade". Then they gave the caks walk from old time up to the present day and concluded with the tango.
 The Mutual two-reel photo-play was "The Mystery of the Wooden Leg." The Pathe News film, disc different scenes, and the comedy play was "Ambrose's First Falsehood". The Paramount Film Company presented Gaby Deslys, the famous dancing star, in "Her Triumph".
 The same will be presented Saturday, matinee and evening.

KINGSTON IN THE LEAD.
 Members of Frontenac Cheese Board Made Money.
 "You will notice that we had a good price last week, and those who boarded their cheese here made money," said William Pillar, secretary of the Frontenac Cheese board, addressing the members at the regular meeting on Thursday afternoon.
 He referred to the fact that at Brockville the price did not go as high as in Kingston, and added: "I feel sure that had there been more cheese boarded we would have got a still higher price. There is no use saying anything to the buyers here to-day about patronizing this board, as you always come, but try and persuade everyone to board their cheese here."
 At next Thursday's meeting the Board will elect its officers.

WANTS TO BE AN OFFICER
 Arthur Don May Attend the American West Point College.
 Being unable to secure admission to the Royal Military College, Arthur Don, a young Chinese student, who lately attended the Kingston Collegiate Institute, told a Whig reporter that he was now awaiting a certificate from the Chinese Consul at Ottawa to enable him to proceed to New York City and enter the military school at West Point to train for an officer in the Chinese Army. He said he was eighteen years of age and was born at Tokio, Japan, where he resided until he was six years of age. He also asserted that his mother was a Japanese lady.
 Arthur is bent on becoming an officer and although he was born in Japan and has all the features of a Japanese, more so than a Chinese, he is anxious to go into the Chinese Army and see his country some day take a leading place among the nations of the world. He has a letter from a Chinese student of San Francisco asking him to obtain the signatures of all the intelligent Chinese in or about Kingston, to a petition which is going to be forwarded to the Chinese Government appealing to its members to have the present symbolical system eliminated and substituted by an alphabet, whereby learning may be made easier for the Chinese people. Arthur Don stated that at present there are 300,000,000 people in China who had no learning and this new movement it is thought by the learned Chinese scholars of America will lessen this terrible state of illiteracy. A couple of Arthur Don's compatriots appeared in the Whig while he was attending the Collegiate Institute.

LETTERS APPRECIATED.
 Letters received from boys at the front or in the various training camps are of great interest to the citizens generally. The Whig will be glad to receive for publication any and all such letters. Personal matter will, of course, be omitted and the letters promptly returned to those to whom they are addressed.
 Letters received by one reader in the country make interesting reading for the friends and relatives of the soldiers. When such are sent in they will be promptly returned.

"A Pair of Sixes" To-night.
 "A Pair of Sixes" is at the Grand Opera House to-night. This successful comedy comes direct to Kingston from its run of a year at the Longacre Theatre, New York city, where it was accorded a patronage unusual in the history of farce. "A Pair of Sixes" is presented by H. H. Frazer, than whom there is no producer more careful in sending companies upon the road that are satisfying in every particular. If you want to laugh continuously for two hours do not miss seeing this famous comedy, which had New York in convulsions for a year. The story tells of two partners in the pill business who are unable to get along, and the efforts of the lawyer whom they call in to settle their difficulties evolves the funniest farce in twenty-five years.

The Canadian Magazine.
 A number of strong features are found in the Canadian Magazine for June. "The Fear of Russia" by Professor A. W. Crawford, shows that after the war we have more to hope from Russia than we could have from Germany. Professor R. A. Macnaughton gives an interesting personal reminiscence of Simons, Leitch, and Professor D. Fraser Harris outlines the influence that Italy has had on British life and thought. John Lewis reviews the famous trial of the Hon. George Brown for contempt of court. Mr. Newton MacTavish contributes a character sketch of George Ham, the "most popular man in the Dominion." There are six excellent short stories.

He said he was eighteen years of age and was born at Tokio, Japan, where he resided until he was six years of age. He also asserted that his mother was a Japanese lady.

ATHLETICS AT THE CAMP.
 Arranged For at a Meeting on Thursday Night.
 Thursday evening there was a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the camp, when an Athletics Association was formed to look after the needs of the soldiers while in camp. The different units were represented by well-known athletes, among whom were Bert Stronach, the famous outside wing player with all-around at the Ottawa. Every line of sport is well covered at the camp, including baseball, soccer, lacrosse and aquatics, and in addition "social evenings" will be arranged for. Different events will be held on Saturdays. The following officers were elected: Honorary president, Col. T. D. R. Hemming; Vice Hon. President, Lieut. Col. E. C. Arnold; President, Capt. Woods; Vice-President, Lieut. Stole From Employer.
 Sylvester Strong, Bathurst, hired a young Scotchman on Saturday for half a month, but on Monday morning he left, taking $17 of his employer's money. Mr. Strong, missed the money after Scotty left and started in pursuit. He traced him to Sharbot Lake, and swore out a warrant for him, and got word of him on the C. P. R. going north. Mr. Strong and Constable Thomson followed as far as On Station, and phoned from there to Clarendon, asking Constable Thomas Kirkham to be on the look-out, giving a description of the man. It wasn't very long until word came that a man answering to that description had been seen at On Station, and Constable Kirkham arrested him and took him to Sharbot Lake. They found all the money on him, and gave him a light sentence.

Crucified a Soldier.
 James R. Butler, of Portsmouth, has received a letter dated May 12th from his son, Private George, who is under Col. A. E. Ross, with No. 1 Ambulance Corps. He says he is well, but that he has been too busy to write. At the present time he has quarters in a school house, which is O. K. Before this he slept in a barn where cows and pigs were kept.
 "But it was not too bad," he added. "And we get good food here. The first brigade had a memorial service for our dead comrades. While the service was on guns were booming at our left; above us airplanes were flying, no doubt looking for trouble; at our right dead comrades were buried."
 "The Germans say that they would rather face a Gurkha than a Canadian. They say we are savages."
 "The Germans crucified a member of the 48th Highlanders, so you can imagine the sympathy we have for the German prisoners."

A FINE CONCERT
 Was Given in Chalmers Church Last Night.
 A concert in aid of "Our Soldiers' Gift Box" was splendidly carried out in the lecture room of Chalmers Church on Thursday evening, with Rev. Dr. MacGillivray presiding. An admission was charged at the door, and many gifts were received, such as tobacco, chewing gum and other articles, to make life pleasant at the front for our Canadian soldiers. The response was liberal; a goodly sum was realized. The programme consisted of vocal solos by Miss Olive Woodman, Miss Carrie Waldron, Miss Annie Tweedell, Messrs. J. D. Bankier, J. Arthur Craig and D. Couper piano solos by R. R. F. Harvey. Including the Italian National Anthem and the Japanese National Anthem; a male quartet entitled "Keep a Goin'" by Messrs. Bankier, McGree, Saunders and Truesdell. A vocal duet by Miss Jessie Slater and Arthur Truesdell, entitled "An Side Tyme Courtship"; was given by request. It is an Old English song, and always appreciated. Another vocal duet was rendered by Messrs. Bankier and Craig, and a quartette by the Messrs. Tweedell and Waldron and Messrs. Bankier and Truesdell.
