

A Popular Suit

The new two button sack will be one of the most popular numbers of our entire spring suit program.

A comfortable suit, surely, for spring and summer wear.

The coat, with its rolling lapel, together with the easy shape of the trousers, gives the wearer a very comfortable feeling—that is always appreciated during the spring and summer seasons.

POOR RELIEF WORK.

Carried On in Kingston During the Past Winter.

The Kingston Relief Association has presented a very satisfactory report of the work carried on during the winter months. The amount expended on families in the city was $2,165.52. The report of the treasurer, W. J. Crothers, showed this to be the case, with a balance in the treasury of $834.48. One hundred and fifty-nine families were assisted. The dispensers of help were Miss Muckleston and Thomas Ronan, who submitted a most satisfactory report, which showed that there had been no overlapping.

The various charitable organizations co-operated with Miss Muckleston and Mr. Ronan. W. H. Wyllie, secretary of the Board, rendered his services in the way of examining all applicants for help and otherwise assisting. The active working members of the Board are Miss Muckleston and Mr. Ronan, who are deserving of the thanks of the citizens for their untiring efforts in assisting the unemployed.

The chairman expressed his pleasure at the good work done and his thanks for the help of the other members. The following are members of the Board:

Abraham Shaw, chairman; W. H. Wyllie, secretary; W. J. Crothers, treasurer; James Stewart, Thomas Ronan, Ald. N. C. O'Connor, Edna Smith, William Baxter, Miss Muckleston, and Miss Strange.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

Steamer Stranded on Shoal—Movements of Vessels.

As the steamer Stanstead was nearing the Richardson elevator about 5:45 o'clock Monday evening, laden with grain from Fort William, it ran upon the tower shoal almost opposite Folger's wharf. A tug was sent to try and pull the steamer off, but was not until she was lighter-bud of several tons of her cargo that the boat was floated high enough to pass over the shoal and come into the wharf to be unloaded.

The steamer Jex cleared on Tuesday for Oswego.

The schooner Abbie L. Andrews arrived from Oswego, and is unloading coal at Crawford's wharf.

Final Reserves Are Called By Germany

Amsterdam, June 1.—The Reichsminister of Berlin has published an order calling to the colors all first class members of the Landsturm, or the final reserve forces, not previously summoned. This order does not apply to Bavaria. Germans in Germany must report between June 9th and 19th. Germans outside of Germany as soon as possible.

"Leo The Royal Cadet."

A company consisting of some of the best talent that Kingston can boast of for singing and acting, will present Cameron and Teigmann's military operetta, "Leo The Royal Cadet," at the Grand Opera House for three nights, commencing June 3rd, with a matinee on the King's Birthday, and Saturday. The company numbering 150 people including beautiful maidens, captivating dudes, dashing cadets, ladies drum corps, civilians, countrymen, soldiers, and terrible Zulus in a realistic battle scene. The orchestra consists of 35 musicians. Rehearsals have been held for the past two months and the management promises a finished performance. Gorgeous costumes and special scenery together with electrical effects will make the production equal to some of the first-class travelling opera companies that have appeared in Kingston.

No Word Yet Received.

No answer has yet been received by American Consul F. S. S. Johnson as to Kingstonsians who are prisoners of war in Germany. A number were officially reported missing and this is taken to mean that some of them at least are prisoners. The American Government has promised to communicate with the local consulate as soon as any information can be obtained.

Saved From Drowning.

Two young men pulled a drunk out of the water at Folger's wharf Monday night about 6:30 o'clock. Although the water was quite shallow, it was apparent that he was about to go out where it was deeper. The young men got hold of him and took him to the police station. His friends were notified, and they looked after him.

General Hospital's Woman's Aid.

CAMP AT BARRIEFIELD

The Sports Committee of Barriefield Camp met on Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A. tent and a very enthusiastic meeting resulted. Two representatives from each unit were chosen making fourteen on the committee. This committee will look after all sports at the camp.

Each unit will run a league of its own and the winners of each week's games will play in the Camp League on Saturday afternoon. This Saturday the following games will be played: football, 35th vs. 28th; 8th C. M. R. vs. Base and Ammunition Column.

Baseball, 8th C. M. R. vs. 26th; 35th vs. 25th and Ammunition Column. Dean Starr was present at the meeting and donated a trophy for the Soccer League championship. Lieut. Stranach, Corpl. Phillips and J. W. Patterson were appointed a permanent sports committee. This committee will hold its first meeting on Wednesday evening. A schedule for indoor baseball games will be drawn up in the near future.

On Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A. tent what is called a "Sing-Song" was held in which the soldiers make an impromptu programme for themselves. It is remarkable what splendid talent can be shown up in this way and some of the work last night would be a credit to the professional stage. There were about twelve items consisting of recitations, comic songs and vaudeville stunts which were thoroughly appreciated. A committee has been appointed to draw up programmes for the future.

The written examinations of the fourth course of the Royal School of Artillery are being conducted this week. Both officers and men have worked hard and the instructors expect a splendid showing when the papers are corrected. The course finishes on Friday afternoon.

Seeking a Location.

Major R. G. Gardiner and Major C. J. Burritt left on Monday for an inspection trip to Deseronto and other places in the west to choose a suitable place for a convalescent home for soldiers. Gananogue has offered the Gananogue Inn. Kingston should get busy and make some effort to secure this home for the city. The authorities prefer to have the building on the mainland; it is not likely to go to one of the Thousand Islands.

Where Is the Tree?

Flowers are not the only things that are a prey to thieves. Last Saturday a penitentiary official residing on Kensington avenue planted a little chestnut tree with which he had been presented. When he went out on Sunday morning to water it, the tree was gone and the spot where it had been planted was nicely leveled.
