The Battalion May Not Remain Long in England.

A post card has been received by C. A. Reed York street, from Pte. Neil Ferguson, who resided at the corner of York and Alfred streets, and is now with the 21st Battalion at Shorncliffe, England. While running in a contest aboard the SS. Metagama, he tripped and sprained his ankle, but expected to be around in a few days.

Lance-Corporal H. Musprath, No. 4 Company 21st Battalion, 2nd Reserve Sandling Camp, England, writes under date of May 16th, and says: "They say that we are not going to get any leave as we are not to be here long. The quicker we get there the sooner we will come back. We are only forty miles from the firing line, and we can see France quite plainly from here."

In a letter to his brother, B. E. Rothwell, Bay street, Private E. F. Rothwell, now at Sandling Camp, with No. 2 Company of the 21st Battalion, says that on the trip over some big icebergs were noticed. At the camp everything is O. K., with aeroplanes quite common. He says the men are quartered thirty to a hut.

In fooling with it the cap exploded, and so badly lacerated one of his fingers that it had to be amputated in the Hotel Dieu. The lad did not know that the cap was dangerous, and was the victim of the carelessness of whoever left the cap where it was found.

TO HOLD STREET FAIR

ON THE CRICKET FIELD ALL NEXT WEEK.

Affair Will Be Held Under the Auspices of the Band Committee of the 14th Regiment—It Will Be Fine Attraction.

The band committee of the 14th Princess of Wales Own Regiment has arranged for a street fair to be held on the Cricket Field, at the Union street side, all next week.
The band is certainly deserving of much support in view of the fact that efforts are being made to reorganize and equip it so that it will be first-class in every respect. In years heretofore the expenses incurred with the band have been met by the officers out of their own pay, but this year no pay is granted to militiamen, and support must come from other sources.

The street fair is varied in character, and first-class in type. It comes to Kingston with the strongest recommendations from Cobourg, Oshawa and Belleville, where it has been playing during the past few weeks. There are many people concerned in the various exhibitions, seven different kinds being promoted. There are afternoon and evening performances, with the session in the evening closing promptly at 10 o'clock.
The show will be placed so that it will not interfere with the senior baseball diamond on the Cricket Field, and baseball can be carried on as usual.

Everything points to a very successful time, and the patronage of the citizens is desired if they wish to make the 14th Regiment Band a credit to the city.

HAD NO QUORUM.

So City Council Could Not Discuss the Application

A special meeting of the City Council was called for Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of considering an application from officers of the 14th Regiment to hold a Street Fair on the Cricket Field but as there was no quorum the matter could not be taken up. Eight members of council put in an appearance but as it requires twelve to carry on business there was "nothing doing."

Mayor Sutherland stated that although there was no quorum the members might discuss the matter in an informal way.

"Well, I have a meeting of the Board of Works and I cannot stay," remarked Ald. Graham, and on his rising from his seat the other members also left the council chamber.

Mayor Sutherland presided and the other members present were Ald. Couper, Graham, Kent, McCann, Nickle, Wright and Wormwith.
