Ottawa Citizen—There is no doubt that the Canadian League will pull through this season, though the clubs must practise economy to cope with war conditions. True, Ottawa had bad weather for their home games, but their attendances, when it was fine, were such as to prove that the club was justified in resuming. It would have been a very bad year had the Canadian League gone up.

At Lowell, Mass., running at the finish apparently little fatigued from his strenuous work, Edouard Fabre of Montreal, winner of the Boston Marathon, won the ten mile race at Bunting Park by a lap and a quarter.
