MARRIED IN ST. GEORGES Pretty Wedding In the Famous

Cathedral. On Wednesday morning in S George's Cathedral, a quiet wedding was performed by Dean Starr, when he united in marriage Miss Emily Ruth Jamieson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Jamieson, 261 King street, to Lorne Inman Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes Walker, Dunnville, Ont Owing to the recent bereavement in the bridegroom's family the ceremony was very quiet. The bride was given away by her father and walked beside him to the altar railing. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Jamieson, as bridesmaid and Master Courtland Jamieson, a brother of the bride as groomsman. The bride, teacher in St. George's Sunday School, was prettily dressed in white voile over white silk with trimmings of shadow lace. About her neck she wore the bridegroom's wedding present, a handsome pearl necklace. A white Panama hat trimmed with roses was Charged with a violation of the White Slave Act, William J. McIlroy, thirty years of age, of Bellrock, Ont., is under arrest in this city as the result of a little trip which he took last week with 20-year-old Lillian Charleton, of Yarker, Ont, to this city. The girl is now in the custody of Mrs. I. A. Kellogg, while McIlroy, facing the serious charge, is now at the county jail pending a report which O. P. Robinson, of Ogdensburg, United States immigration inspector, will make to the United States district attorney. The couple were arrested in the Park Hotel, in upper State street, by Detective Centain street, by Detective Captain A. S.
