"Page and Shaw Sweets," Gibson's. H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuley's Book Store.

G. Y. Chown attended the meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in Toronto this week. To-morrow being children's day at the big street fair in aid of the 14th Band the children of the Orphan's home will be admitted free.

Rev. Austin L. Bridge, Creemore, Ont., who wrote "The Kirk in Council for the Whig and did it so cleverly, left for his home on the midnight G.T.R. train. "Page and Shaw Sweets," Gibson's.

There was a very small market on Thursday morning. Eggs sold from 22c to 23c a dozen and butter from 30c to 31c lb. All other prices were unchanged. There was a very short session of the Police Court on Thursday morning. Two drunks were fined $1 and each and a young woman accused of vagrancy was remanded.

"Page and Shaw Sweets," Gibson's. C. Blackett Robinson, Ottawa, is a delegate to the General Assembly. He is an ex-journalist. He entered the profession at Lindsay in 1857. He published the Week at Toronto for thirteen years.

"Films developed" at Gibson's. Lieut. C. K. Whittaker, Lethbridge, Alta., who has successfully passed his R.S.A. course here, left Wednesday at midnight for Calgary where he is to be attached to an artillery brigade.

"Page and Shaw Sweets" at Gibson's. The Militia Department announces the names of fifty candidates who have passed entrance examinations to the Royal Military College, Kingston, including Percy Bidwell, Ham and Vrooman.

"Nelson's Ice Cream Bricks," Gibson's. A Skillful Moderator. The conduct and progress of the Assembly has been both pleasant and efficient, remarks the Toronto Globe. Rev. Malcolm Macgregor has proved himself a real Moderator, for he certainly has the art of moderating. He was born near the sea shores of Scotland, and he has the quiet mien of a master mariner who has steered his bark through many a stormy sea safely into the harbor. He has guided the Assembly through the tempest and the cross currents of the union question with a steady keel and not a man overboard.

Look Out For Pickpockets. Several pick-pockets are operating at various places throughout the city, and many persons have been "touched" for different amounts. Orla Quessel, a motorman on one of the Street Railway cars, was relieved of a good watch on Wednesday. Mr. Quessel said that a couple of men sat on the seat beside him, while he was driving. Wishing to know the time later he missed his time-piece.

Died in New Zealand. The sad and unexpected news of the sudden death from heart disease, in Auckland, New Zealand, on Wednesday, of Dr. Norman Grant, was received with profound sorrow and regret by all who knew him, for he was a man among men—a whole-souled, genial, big-hearted, broad-minded gentleman. He had planned to come to Canada for a year's rest, as he was
