DISOBEYED THE LAW

AND HAD TO PAY FINE IN THE POLICE COURT.

Drove Automobile Past a Street Car While it Was Making a Stop For Passengers—Cases Heard by Magistrate Saturday.

Because Byron Derbyshire drove his automobile past a street car while it stopped at a street corner to allow passengers to get on and off, he was fined $1 and costs by Magistrate Farrell in the Police Court Saturday morning. The offence took place on Thursday.

"I did not know that part of the law," said the accused to the court. "Well, it has been published in the papers just recently," remarked the Magistrate.

"But I did not see it. I do not want to break any law in the city," said Mr. Derbyshire.

A young man arrested a week ago for driving an automobile at an immoderate rate of speed was further remanded for a week, his bail being renewed.

The case in which one of the actors at the street fair sued his employer for wages was settled, the man being paid $20.

One drunk was fined $1 and costs, and another was given a chance.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND.

The Programme for Next Week is Announced.

For the patrons of the Grand Opera House a programme of unusual strength and merit has been secured for the first three days of next week. The Famous Players Picture of Wallace Eddinger in a picturization of the New York hit, "A Gentleman of Leisure," will be shown along with a two-reel Mutual photo-play, and a one-reel Keystone comedy. The Famous Pathe News film will also be shown.

The vaudeville includes Lamore and Juliet, "The Athletic Girl" and the Nut, introducing a big novelty and comedy sensational act; also Domleo in a high-class musical act.

This evening will be the last opportunity of seeing the charming actress Elsie Janis in "The Caprices of Kitty." There is also a good vaudeville bill.

SEVEN MORE DWELLINGS

To Be Erected in North-East Section of City.

Permits for the erection of seven cement block dwellings in the north-east section of the city were taken out at the City Engineer's office on Friday.

B. Derbyshire will erect three bungalows on the south side of Markland street.

H. F. Norman will erect three bungalows on the north side of Sixth street, between Division and Chatham streets.

James Farrell will put up a dwelling on the west side of Montreal street, between North street and Raglan Road.

The contractors for all these dwellings are the Kingston Cement Products Company.

WON SUIT FOR WAGES.

Mrs. Annie Duffy was awarded $212 in County Court.

On Saturday morning Judge Madden gave judgment for $212 in the case of Mrs. Annie Duffy, who sued D. L. Baskock, Sharbot Lake, for $300 wages due her for acting as his housekeeper. The case was heard at the session of the court on Friday.

T. J. Rigney was counsel for the plaintiff in this case. S. M. Macdonnell acted for the defendant.

A Small Fire.

A child lighting a match to look for a hat in a cupboard under a stairway caused a fire at the home of Mrs. Sagar, at 142 Pine street, at 3.06 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The firemen were called, and the damage was slight.

WAR AND THE PRESS.

By the collapse of the real estate boom, and the war follow-up, the press of this country has been hard hit. In announcing its amalgamation with the Evening Chronicle, the Daily News, Port Arthur, says:

"The situation has been greatly aggravated since the present depression set in. The war was the finishing touch. No business has been hit harder than the publishing trade. There is a popular delusion that war is good for the news-papers because more copies are sold; but there is no profit in circulation, except indirectly through the greater value it offers advertisers, who are the main source of revenue. Both the Evening Chronicle and the Daily News have been compelled through shrinkage of advertising to reduce their size to six pages, at a time, too, when they have been put to increased expense for telegraphic tolls in order to provide adequate war news."

"Here are some of the Western city newspapers which have suspended publication in the past year, all but two since the war began: Fort William Herald, Winnipeg Morning Telegram, Prince Albert Times, Medicine Hat News, Brandon News, Regina Evening Leader, Regina Morning Province, Edmonton Capital, Lethbridge News, Vancouver World."

"The Winnipeg Telegram and the Regina Province remain in the evening field and the Regina Leader in the morning, Regina Standard and Regina Province amalgamated as an evening paper. The others simply closed their doors. In addition, the Saskatoon Phoenix went into liquidation and was taken over by another company."

Letters to the Editor

The Kingston Humane Society.

Kingston, June 12 (To the Editor): May I trespass on your good nature on behalf of the above society, whose funds are just now at a very low ebb, and require replenishing. The society has for several years, through the kindness of its friends, carried on a crusade against the cruelty to animals so prevalent in the past in this city, particularly to horses, and I feel certain the public realize that the cruelty referred to has almost disappeared owing to the work done by our society. Horses, dogs, cats and any other animals have had our care and protection. This requires money, and so far we have been able to meet all expenses. The cruelties we have had to notice are mild as compared with those this war has developed, and it may be interesting to your readers, as our friend the dog is concerned, to give them a short account of the development of the poisoned gas scheme at present in use by the German brutes. Before making use of it against the Allies, and to test its efficacy, some two hundred dogs were either purchased or stolen—the latter if the Crown Prince was about—from some of the villages in Belgium. A long trench was then dug similar to those in use at the front, the poor dogs were put in it, the gas applied, and the effect admired by the staff officers present, for in a few minutes the poor brutes (I mean the dogs) were no more. Thank goodness, the cruelties we have to deal with are as nothing to this sample of German Kultur, but insignificant as ours are, it is our duty to stop them, and this is what our society is trying to do, and this is the work we wish every person to assist us in. Most of us pride ourselves on our kindness to animals. Let us make sure that we are entitled to do so by supporting any society that has for its object the alleviation of animals from such pains as cruel and thoughtless persons make them suffer. Humanity must be practical; otherwise it is useless.

I have given up my house, and grounds on the corner of Beverly and Union streets to a committee of ladies interested in our work, and I am directed by them to say that any and every person interested will be welcome to the sale of home-made articles to be held on Tuesday afternoon, the 15th inst., from 4 to 6 o'clock. Come and assist in a good work. Yours truly, J. B. WALKER, President.

MUST FACE ANOTHER CHARGE.

William McLroy is Accused of Forging a Cheque.

William McLroy, found guilty of stealing cattle, at the sessions of the County Court before Judge Madden, has to face another charge, that of forging a cheque. He is now in jail, having been sentenced to a term of six months at the prison farm at Guelph, but will likely be arraigned before Justice of the Peace George Hunter some time next week.

It is alleged that McLroy put over a forged cheque on the Northern Crown Bank for $70.

Helping the Cause.

The Kingston Old Boys of Toronto sent a cheque for $50 to Queen's Stationary Hospital to furnish two beds. In addition the Women's Auxiliary, desiring to prove their loyalty to the old Limestone City, decided to hold a shower, and at the regular monthly meeting held in May the following articles were contributed: Twenty bed jackets, 37 sheets, 35 pillow slips, 116 miscellaneous towels, 57 handkerchiefs, 192 triangular badges, 5 pairs socks, 12 squares of cotton to sterilize in, 300 cigarettes, and 6 1-4 pounds of chocolate.

Street Carnival a Success.

The street carnival, held during the week on Queen's campus, opposite Victoria School, under the auspices of the 14th Band, has met with good success. Friday evening there was a big crowd in attendance, when a merry-go-round was an additional feature. The motordrome was a popular place. This evening the last performances will be given. The carnival will go from here to Brockville.

Farmers Again Seek Help.

Immigration Agent George Hunter reports that at present there is a scarcity of farm-help, and the farmers are bidding against each other for the few farm hands who are arriving. The harvest season will be coming on soon, and there will be a big demand for competent help. The authorities do not expect that they will be able to meet the demand. The arrival of immigrants has practically ceased since the war broke out, and the only farm-help obtainable are what are known as "floaters"—men who travel from one district to another, going where the most wages are obtained.

Assisted at Garden Party.

The names of the girls who assisted in the canteen at Red Cross garden party on Wednesday afternoon and evening were omitted. The following were the willing workers: Misses Molly and Dorothea Bidwell, Ethelwyn McGowan, Ward and Caroline Fink, May and Elsie Robertson, Alice Moore, Harriet Gardner, Muriel Brookes, Violet Birley, May Mills, Ethel Kent, Sybil Kirkpatrick and Miss Lindsay, (Montreal).

To Unveil a Monument.

The unveiling of a monument to the late William Bruce, who was hospitalized at his home on Brock street about a year ago, will take place at Latimer on Sunday afternoon. The late Mr. Bruce was a member of the local Woodmen of the World Lodge, and some fifty members of the same will leave the city at one o'clock Sunday for Latimer to attend the ceremony.

Don't Forget

Garden party, House of Providence, Wednesday, June 16th, afternoon, and evening. Orchestra in attendance.
