SPINAL MENINGITIS CURE.

A Cheap Spray Effective in Its Early Stages.

It is generally recognized by medical men to-day that spraying the nose and throat with one grain of Permanganate of Potash to one ounce of water will cure epidemic cerebral spinal meningitis in the early stages while the germ is still to be found only in these situations, and will also act as a preventive to those who have not been infected. The above is a very cheap preparation, and easily within the reach of every parent.

In this connection the interesting statement is made that the germs of spinal meningitis cannot live longer than half an hour in sunlight.
