THE UTILITIES COMMISSION SUSTAINED BY THE PEOPLE

Who Voiced Against Repeal of By-law.

A KNOCKOUT BLOW
WAS GIVEN THE PROPOSAL OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Vote For Commission Was 549 to 332—The Incinerator By-law Carried By 435 to 266.
The result of the voting on the two by-laws submitted to the ratepayers on Monday was that the Utilities Commission was sustained and that the erection of a garbage incinerator was endorsed.
The City Council's by-law to repeal the by-law passed in 1913 to entrust the control and management of the Public Utilities of Kingston to a Commission received a knockout blow, the people upholding the commission government by 549 to 332.
The by-law for the expenditure of $7,000 on an incinerator for the disposal of the city's garbage was endorsed by 435 to 266.

Little more than one-quarter of the people cast their votes, but this was not unexpected, as there was not an organization whatever for getting the ratepayers out to the polls.
The following was the result of the voting:

The Mayor's Statement.
After the City Council had convened on Monday evening, Mayor Sutherland made some remarks with reference to the by-laws that the people had voted upon. He stated that a number of citizens had come to him and asked him to submit, at the same time as the incinerator by-law, a referendum to the people on the question of abolishing the Utilities Commission. That was the reason for the submitting of the by-law. The only regret he had was the smallness of the vote.
"This," said the Mayor, "emphasizes the fact that the citizens lack interest in civic government."
The Mayor claimed that the submitting of the Utilities by-law would result in great benefit. The question had brought the Utilities Commission before the people and he thought the criticism on both sides would show good results. The Commission members had made statements and were now on record. It was up to them to live up to that record.
As to the Commission and the Council, the Mayor said there seemed to be a missing link. In order to bring the two bodies closer together, he suggested that the City Clerk be made secretary of the Commission so that Council might be fully informed of its proceedings. He understood that the Commissioners would be willing to have this done.
His Worship also stated that he took exception to some remarks made in editorials and in interviews during the past week. He took exception chiefly to the suggestion that the Council could be pulled. The Council, he declared was beyond reproach. He himself had not been influenced by a certain paper, as had been hinted, and he knew that the Council could not be influenced by statements handed out by the press.

HE FLOATED IN THE AIR.
Private R. Warrington Was Hit By Shell.

Private R. Warrington, of "E" Company, 48th Highlanders, son of George Warrington, of McKelvey & Birch, writes as follows:
"Well, the Germans got me at last with one of their shells. I managed to get in the way of one of them. I felt myself floating in the air. Then a—blank—till I woke in the hospital. Total damage: broken ankle, sprained back, and deaf in one ear. Not so bad, eh? This hospital, First E. G. Hospital, Cambridge, is certainly a nice place. They take good care of me, and I will soon be on my feet again. Then I will get a few days' leave. I expect. Leo Dillon got shot in the leg, and I believe young Truman is either dead or in the hands of the Germans. Believe me, I picked off a few of them. The fighting was at Festubert and La Bassée and Richbourg. We got orders to clear the orchards and a farm of Germans. We charged, but the Germans hid it as soon as they saw us coming. There is damn few of the original 4th left, about 30 men and two officers."

FOR SUMMER HOMES
Drinking Water Rendered Immune From Typhoid By Montreal.

Most epidemics of typhoid are traceable to impure water. City people going to the country for the summer months or even for week ends, very often bring back typhoid germs owing to vegetable decomposition in lake, river and well water.
The bacteriologists at McGill University have proven that a small quantity of Montserrat Lime Juice will destroy typhoid germs in water in twenty minutes.
Typhoid can be prevented at home or at the country cottage by using Montserrat Lime Juice. It makes the water absolutely immune, besides providing a wholesome, cooling and thirst assuaging beverage.
Keep a pitcher of this healthy beverage in the ice box.
Montserrat Lime Juice is for sale at all druggists and grocers.
A man who patronizes saloons often finds himself in a tight place.

FORMER 56TH PRIVATE

Writes to Capt. G. H. Darling, Lansdowne.
Capt. G. H. Darling, 56th Regiment, Lansdowne, received the following letter from Private Thomas B. Fitzgerald, 13th Battalion, C. E. F., dated Horningham Hall Hospital, Dalton, York, England, May 29th:
"I thought that I would write you a few lines. After leaving you I went to Brockville, and was working there when I enlisted in the 41st Regiment, but I was transferred to the 5th Royal Scots Highlanders, Montreal. I got wounded in the right shoulder and getting along fine, except for an attack of rheumatism, that I hope will soon leave me. It was on the fourth day of the fight that I got hit. I will bet the Germans will not want to attack us Canadians again in a hurry. My battalion—the 13th—was next to the Algerian Zouaves when the Germans broke through. We had it hot for a while, but we got the best of them, and believe me, we did not forget the way they treated our boys. The hospital I wrote to you before, but did not hear from you. I hope this letter will find you well. With best wishes."

Gananoque

June 22.—The annual outing of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's officers and agents is in progress, this week. Quite a number spent the week-end in town, and a further contingent arrived yesterday, making the number up to about one hundred. During yesterday morning a baseball game was pulled off between representatives of Canada and United States, the Canadians winning out. The party chartered the Missisquoi for an afternoon's ramble among the islands, and held a business session during the evening. The delegates present represent New York State, Ontario and Quebec. The party leaves this morning on the Missisquoi for Kingston, and will dine at the Frontenac. During the evening the Citizens' Band orchestra furnished an excellent programme of selections for the occasion. The High School entrance examinations started yesterday afternoon in the High School with 61 candidates writing, of whom 36 were girls and 25 boys.
The coal schooner Horace Taber arrived on Sunday with another cargo.
Edgar Waldie, King street, is suffering from blood poisoning in his right hand.
A cabman received here yesterday from Lieut. Howard Taylor says: "Quite heavy casualties among the Canadian infantry; artillery all safe."
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Perrin, spending part of their honeymoon at Westport, returned here yesterday to spend a short time in town.
Mr. Douglas G. Pound, Kingston, spending the past few days in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith, Brock street, returned home yesterday.
Joseph Marney, Stone street, has returned from a short visit with Brockville relatives. Mrs. Harold Nicholson, Kingston, spent the past few days with local relatives.

SAW TWO CRUCIFIED.

British Bandsman Tells Another Story of German Brutality.
London, June 22.—A bandsman in hospital at Exeter, wounded, declares in a sworn statement taken by and in the presence of James Owen, Mayor of Exeter, that one day between May 1st and 5th he was detailed to do duty as a stretcher bearer with his battalion, which was advancing on Hill No. 60, south-east of Ypres.
"Passing an old barn we saw on the door two men fastened, faces outward. Their arms were outstretched. I thought that there were nails through their hands, but some of my companions declare that there were big spikes driven through their palms.
"Their legs did not seem to be fastened and their heads hung down toward their chests. We could hardly see the faces, but the men appeared to have been killed only recently, as the flesh was not yet discolored.
"They were dressed in khaki. I do not know to what regiment they belonged. They looked as if there had been a fire under one of them, for his clothes were all charred and blackened, and there was a heap of clinders beneath. However, our serjeant would not permit us to approach any closer, because there was more work to be done further on."

VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND.
A Large Audience Was Present on Monday Night.
The programme of vaudeville and pictures presented at the Grand Opera House Monday night before a large audience, was one of the best bills seen in this city for some time. The pictures shown were very entertaining, and included the Famous Players Picture of the Irresistible Marguerite Clark in an idyllic blending of comedy and sentiment, "Gretna Green." This is a most charming story, and the audience was delighted with this part of the entertainment. The other pictures shown were also good, and included a two-reel Mutual photoplay, "The Forged Testament," a Keystone comedy, "Caught in the Park," "The Father's Famous News Picture." The Famous Colored Picture was shown for the first time in this city, and proved very fine.
The vaudeville was also good. It consisted of Brinkman and Katam in a singing and dancing act. They scored a big success with their rendering of several songs, among which were "My Bird of Paradise," "Everybody Rags With Me," and "Dear Old Moonlight."
The same bill will be shown to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening at the usual time.
