Grant, Mrs. Penhale Sher- gone down to New York, where she is about three cents a gallon cheaper than Bermudez, the kind used on Barrie street. Trinidad asphalt is used on Princess street, from Clergy to King and along King to Brock.

From members of the City Council, the Whig learns that the reason one of the higher tenders was accepted was that they regarded the figure of the Imperial Oil Company as too cheap for a good asphalt, and also because a Kingston chemist reported that this company's product would crack in cold weather. They intimated that they did not like to take a chance on it.

Ald. Graham would have accepted the Imperial Company's asphalt, stating in Council he was willing to chance it, but Aztec was accepted as Don't forget the W.
