At four o'clock yesterday after-noon, at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Melvin Taylor united in marriage Miss M. Alice Bevins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bevins, King street, to William E. Jones, son of Mrs Jones ,Charles street. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maud Bevins, while her brother, Claude Bevins, assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty luncheon was served, after which they left at six o'clock for Toronto and western points. On their return they will take up residence on Charles street. The bride for a number of years has conducted a ladies' tailoring establishment on King street, and the groom a tonsorial parlor.
