Upon Colmar and Send Reinforcements Into Alsace---Enemy's Attacks at Metzral Were Broken Up.

Attacks at Calonne and on the Meuse Heights Were Repulsed---The French Official Communique Reports a Lull Elsewhere Along the Western

(Special to the Whig.)

Paris, June 28.—(Official).—The Germans are alarmed at the progress of the French advance upon Col- A List Issued Of Wounded and Prismar and have sent reinforcements into Alsace.

Several strong attacks were delivered last night against the newly-acquired French positions at Metzral, but they were broken up by French shrapnel fire.

The enemy also attacked French positions during the night at Calonne, and at several other points along the Meuse heights. In each instance these assaults were Donald, Scotland; G. W. Steacy, repulsed.

This afternoon's official communique reported a lull Wheeler, Ireland; Charles Barrett, elsewhere along the battle-front.
