IT HAS GIVEN 22 OFFICERS AND 400 MEN.

Twenty-two officers and over 400 men seconded to the overseas force is the splendid record of the 14th Regiment, P. W. O. R.

On the first contingent, Capt. L. F. Guttman, Lieut. C. W. Day and Lieut. G. T. Richards were accepted as officers.

It was not long before Lieut. G. T. Richardson's merits were recognized, and he was promoted to captain.

The next in command, Major H. J. Dawson, was a few days ago promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel and officer commanding the 59th Overseas Battalion.

Many other of the officers are on active service in Canada.

OF MEN WHO ARE ON THE "PROHIBITED LIST."

Member on the List Was Fined $10 and Costs—Hotel Paid a Fine of $5 And Costs.

"I knew the bartender did not know me, so I took a chance on getting served."

So a member of the "prohibited list" told Magistrate Farrell on Monday morning, when he was called to give evidence in the case of a local hotel, charged with serving a man on the list.

A bartender at the hotel admitted serving him, but stated that he did not know he was on the list.

T. J. Rigney, who appeared for the hotel charged, said that he thought the evidence of the bartender was sufficient to show the court that the hotel had not made a wilful mistake, and that, in view of the circumstances, the magistrate had the power to show discretion.

"I must say that I am very much pleased at the frankness of the bartender," remarked the magistrate, especially when compared with other cases of this kind.

"Yes, I know it is," remarked the Court. "I do not know if there has been any move to have the men on the list photographed."

"They should be lined up on the market square the first day of every month for inspection by the bartenders," remarked Mr. Rigney.

The magistrate imposed a fine of $5 and costs on the hotel and $10 and costs on the prohibited man.

A young man was arrested for drunkenness, decided to go on the "prohibited list," and was given his liberty.

Every Whig that is received in the camp is passed around, so that everyone gets all the information about the doings at home.

One letter from the camp says that there are a number of Kingston boys who have not received any mail from home, the letters having been held up some place on the way.
