

KIDNEY DISEASE WAS KILLING HIM

Until He Used "Fruit-a-tives" The Great Kidney Remedy

HAGERVILLE, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913.

"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work and I was run down in condition. Having seen 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected. My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever."

C. P. R. PURCHASING DEPARTMENT AT THE DISPOSAL

Of The British Government To Assist It In a Trying Time—Big Orders Are Coming.

Montreal, July 5.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C.P.R., arrived home from London Saturday. In an interview Sir Thomas said:

"The British Government desires purchase as largely as possible in Canada, and in order that the purchases may be earmarked, I was asked by the War Office to come to London to meet the officers. What I had to do there had no reference at all to shells or to the purchase of horses or fodder. All shells are being purchased by the Shell Committee and all horses and fodder for the armies by the Remount Department. It was there to consult the War Office about general purchases."

He had merely placed the purchasing department of the Canadian Pacific Railway at the disposal of the Government "for a nominal consideration" to assist it in a trying time.

"I think there will be more orders placed in Canada than there have been," said Sir Thomas. "A memorial is being prepared by the War Department showing what is required. I think that we will be able to get Morgan and Company to transfer here any orders that may go to them."

Kitchener Very Agreeable.

"Lord Kitchener is an ideal soldier. In the beginning there was an enormous amount of work placed on his shoulders, but it is better arranged now. I found him a very agreeable man, very delightful."

"Of course he is a very busy man all the time. Lloyd George's peculiar temperament makes him liable to break down under a severe strain, but he is taking care of himself and promised not to collapse. One cannot help but be impressed with the number of very excellent citizens known heretofore only in private life, who are struggling around the streets of London in uniform—ranging from a major to a major-general—without any apparent connection with the Canadian militia. I was surprised to find them there."

Sir Thomas denied that he intended to resign his position with the C.P.R., but said he might have to ask for a leave of absence.

KILLED IN ELEVATOR.

Allan Gillard Dropped Seventy-five Feet to His Death.

Toronto, July 5.—Sixteen-year-old Allan Gillard, 325 Brunswick avenue, dropped two storeys, a distance of seventy-five feet, to his death at the A. R. Williams Machinery Company's plant, 64 Front street west, Saturday afternoon.

From the investigations of the police it would appear that the lad pulled the elevator rope which brought the hoist to the second floor. Throwing up the guard, it is said that he attempted to jump on the moving hoist as it continued upward. Misjudging the distance or the speed of the hoist, his jump fell short and he slipped through between the space of the elevator and the floor level. The body was removed to the Morgue and an inquest has been ordered.

Another Paper Barred.

FOURTEEN SURVIVORS WASHED OVERBOARD

Only One Man of Submarine Victim Got to Land in One Lifeboat

St. Ives, Eng., July 5.—Michael Opposin, the sole survivor of the sixteen men who escaped in one of the lifeboats which carried the crew of thirty-six away from the British steamer Scottish Monarch, when that vessel was sunk by a German submarine last Tuesday, was landed by a trawler here.

Opposin said that the seas were very rough when the boat was launched, rising higher as the storm increased and breaking continually over its sides. Four men being washed overboard. Chief Officer Gabrielsen died from exposure and injuries. His dead body also was landed by the trawler.

A previous despatch stated that the captain and 13 of the crew of the Scottish Monarch were picked up and landed at Danmore, Ireland.

Sir Rodmond Roblin testified in the Fullerton charges that he knew of no arrangement with the Liberals. Lombardy is organizing to solve the munitions problem in Italy.

KING ALFONSO IN BACKGROUND

Very Little Attention In Paris Since The War Began.

Paris, July 5.—The King of Spain, who formerly furnished a great deal of copy for French newspapers, has had very little attention since the war began. Paris began to cool toward Alfonso XIII. In 1913, now he seems to be almost entirely outside the zone of interest. Reports from Madrid and Saint Sebastian represent him as following every development of the war with great interest and with sympathetic leaning to the Allies, while the rest of the court is said to be pro-German.

The Bayonne correspondent of the Petit Journal writes that King Alfonso recently acted as intermediary between the German Government and the wife of a French soldier who had received no news from her husband since he was wounded at Charleroi, August 22nd. The King sent an autograph letter to the young woman informing her that her husband was a prisoner of war in Germany, deprived of the privilege of communicating with France, and that he was continuing his efforts to obtain permission for him to write to his family.

TRICKERY LAYS HIS CREW

All Stuck To Posts To Last Despite Heavy Shelling.

Liverpool, July 5.—In an interview Captain James Tricker, of the steamer Armenian, said:

"I had a crew numbering 162 men. They were of mixed nationalities, although the majority were American citizens. I wish to pay a tribute to them for the way they obeyed orders while shells were flying all about them. They were cool and courageous and were cut-throat in making a dash for it. The officers, engineers, sailors and firemen stuck to their posts to the last, especially two firemen, although they were in imminent danger all the time. No crew could have behaved more bravely. Their coolness under fire was admirable and worthy of all recognition."

"I do not say between forty and fifty shells struck the ship. Among the drowned was Dr. Vive, the ship's doctor, who came on board at Newport News."

One of the sailors drowned was on the Lusitania when she was torpedoed. An Arab on board died of fright and another committed suicide in terror. Several men flung themselves overboard.

SUPPLYING BRITISH.

When it is mentioned that 2,000 tons of goods—food and other necessities—are sent every day from the base depots to the fighting line of the British Army, some idea of the gigantic task of the Army Service Corps will be gathered.—Harold old Begbie.

ARE NOT IN A HURRY

HANGING REBEL RINGLEADERS CAPTURED BY THE SERBIANS

Drastic Methods Are Being Used To Assure The Pacification Of Albania—Situation Is Complicated.

London, July 5.—The Serbians are not in any hurry to occupy Durazzo. Meanwhile they are on the friendliest terms with Esad Pasha, who is busy convicting rebel ringleaders captured by the Serbians. A special court has been formed for the purpose, and this is sentencing many to death. Seventeen rebels were hanged Wednesday, and other executions are to follow. The pacification of Albania thus is assured, since the rebels are rapidly diminishing in numbers. The booty in Austrian arms and ammunition taken by the Serbians is considerable.

The situation in Southern Albania is greatly complicated owing to the advance of two columns of Greek irregulars on Berat, which they threaten to occupy.

The Allies have warned Greece the occupation of Berat will not be tolerated.

RESTRICT SAILING.

Of Americans To Europe On Certain Vessels.

London, July 5.—The correspondence at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph Company says he learns from a diplomatic source that the German reply to the American note, which is expected to be delivered at Washington next week, will include the proposal that American citizens coming from Europe should be restricted to sailing on certain specified vessels, the departure and destination of which shall be announced to the German Government. A joint American and German inspection of these ships to see whether they are neutral and American or British will be suggested.

If the proposal is accepted, the correspondent says, Germany will guarantee that such ships will not be molested by her submarines.
