 Even rainy weather does not alter the routine of the soldiers at Bar-riefield camp. Wednesday evening, the officers and men state, was the worst night since camp opened, and Thursday morning the roads were inches deep in mud. The rain poured down, but even for this condition of affairs there is an order. The men remain in their tents until the bugle-call. At the sound of the call the different companies parade to tents and until the rain is over lectures are given by the officers.
 Thursday afternoon was bright and warm with a delightful breeze blowing towards the lake. The parade ground dries up rapidly and soon the tents were rolled and the camp resumed its fair weather appearance. The men appeared on the parade ground from nowhere and the field work was recommenced. In all corners and in the centre of the large field in front of the Administration Building were squads answering the call of their instructors to "form fours," "about wheel" and the rest of the code of signals that goes with the training of an infantryman.

Allan M. Reid,
 111 Princess Street Kingston

Lieut.-Col. J. J. Fee, Commandant of Fort Henry was a visitor at the camp on Thursday.
 The signallers are progressing splendidly. Every day this body of men are sending their signals through space by means of flags, heliograph and other methods.
 The appearance of the officers reminds one of the days of South Africa when even the men were equipped with sun-helmets. These khaki colored helmets look very business-like and aid in giving the camp a very war-like appearance.

A private in the 38th Battalion will now take a shower-bath without having to be told, as a result of a lesson that he learned on Thursday afternoon. As in all large bodies of men there are a few, and fortunately at Barriefield camp a very few men, who will not take advantage of the shower-baths which are placed so conveniently around the camp.
 This man in the opinion of two of his comrades needed a bath and was quickly soaked. He replied that he would take a bath when he got good and ready, but his answer displeased his audience of two and they conveyed him to the baths, took his clothes off and forced him to take a wetting. The incident caused a great amount of commotion and a crowd of soldiers gathered to see the fun. The unwilling bather took his punishment good-naturedly and and a broad grin upon his face when he came out of the building.

Officers and men are organizing themselves into baseball teams and play regularly. The headquarters staff team lost its game against the 38th Battalion team on Monday by a margin of one run. On Thursday evening a game was played between the members of the staff, but owing to the fact that there was no official scorer, the result could not be ascertained.

It is understood that some of the officers are considering the sending of their applications for attendance at the Aviation School, Toronto.
 The tactical scheme which the 8th C. M. R. was to work out on Thursday, and which had to be postponed owing to the bad weather, will be carried out next week.
 Capt. A. W. Gray, 59th Battalion, has been selected to attend the school of Musketry at Rockcliffe, and left on Thursday for this purpose.
 Col. T. D. R. Hemming, Commandant of the camp, is certainly not a "figure-head" commander. With the orderly officer for the day, he makes a minute inspection of the camp lines and is able in this way to understand the varying conditions thoroughly. He is also a familiar figure on the parade grounds, making informal inspections of the men at their work.

The men in the 59th Battalion are being drilled in squads. As some of the men have been drilling much longer than others, only the recruits are given the elementary drill while the others are given more advanced work. Lieut.-Col. H. J. Dawson is highly pleased with the results.

The men of the 8th C. M. R. were engaged in musketry exercises on Thursday afternoon. The men used the sub-target machines and showed up very satisfactorily.
 A regimental barber shop will be opened in the lines of the 59th Battalion.
 The cyclist branch of the militia is not developed at the camp, there being no cyclist unit here. There are however a number of Khaki bicycles which are used by messengers in the carrying of orders.
 All wagons and automobiles which carry men and officers to the city from the camp remain outside the lines and solicit their patronage on the main road. So much traffic on the camp roads has cut deep ruts.
 These will be repaired and only necessary traffic allowed.
 The parade grounds in front of the Administration Building is

Don't Use Soap
 On Your Hair
 When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.
 The best thing to use is just plain nutmilk cocoanut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.
 Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, shiny, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

At Lake Ontario Park.
 One of the largest crowds so far this season was at Lake Ontario Park last evening. The new programme presented was excellent.
 Miss Margaret Wood, the sweet soprano singer, rendered "Cooching Melody," "Small Town Sport," and in reply to scores gave a pretty song.
 She concluded her act by a fine buck dance.

The Halman Brothers gave a novel description of "In the Wyvern's Den." Their contortionist acts were cleverly performed.
 The moving pictures were excellent, especially "An Unpaid Ransom," "Cutty Becomes a Landlord" and "The Cowboy's Conquest." The same bill will be repeated for the balance of the week.
