AT THE POLICE COURT

THEFT CASE DISMISSED AFTER EVIDENCE WAS HEARD.

Dog Which Attacked Little Girl Must Be Sent to the Country—Fine Imposed in an Assault Case.

Philip B. Jenkins was accused of stealing a watch at camp from a comrade, James Garrison. Constable Samuel Arniel arrested Jenkins while he was on the way to the city on July 2nd. He had a gold watch in his pocket at that time, and Constable Arniel took the man and the watch to the police station. The evidence went to show that Garrison's watch had been loaned to two different men and eventually got into the hands of Jenkins, who was doing picket duty. He claimed, however, that he had no intention of stealing the time-piece. He declared that he had been drinking. On this evidence the Magistrate dismissed the case.

It was said to see Bertha McAllister, a young woman of good appearance, charged with vagrancy. She pleaded "guilty," but said it was her first offence. As so many complaints have been received about her, she was sent to jail for one month.

John Saue, well known as "Poor Bastard," started to shed tears, as per usual, when up for drunkenness and vagrancy. The Magistrate cut him very short with a fine of $2 and costs.

A citizen was up for assaulting his wife. She said that her husband had been drinking off and on for three months. Things came to a climax on Monday afternoon, when he pushed her up against the wall and struck her with his fist. This was more than she would stand for, and so had him summoned. She had additional damaging evidence against her husband, in the shape of a large-sized flask, which had contained whiskey. Just a very little of the "strong stuff" was left in the flask. As the Kingstonian is on the "prohibited list," he was asked by the Magistrate where he had secured the liquor; he denied all knowledge of the flask. He was fined $5 and costs.

A dog belonging to Michael Amodeo, fruit dealer, attacked a little girl and bit her on the leg. The wound, while not dangerous, was quite painful. The dog was ordered to be taken out of the city so as to prevent another accident. The owner agreed to pay the doctors' bill.

OBITUARY

The Late Michael Purtell.
Michael Purtell, a well-known business man of this city, died at noon Thursday at his late residence. Deceased was born forty-eight years ago, and for the past twenty years conducted a grocery business on Montreal street. He was only three weeks ago that he was stricken down with a paralytic stroke.

In religion the late Mr. Purtell was a Roman Catholic, and member of St. Mary's Cathedral. He was also connected with the League of the Sacred Heart. In politics the deceased was a Liberal. To mourn his loss there are a wife and one infant daughter, Mary Elizabeth. His wife before her marriage was Miss Agnes E. Laughlin, Watertown, N.Y. A father and three brothers also survive: James Purtell, Jr., William and John, all of this city.

On Saturday morning at 9.30 o'clock the remains will be taken to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung by Rev. Father Hanley. Afterwards they will be buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Aground at Cobourg.
On Sunday evening the schooner City of Chebogan, bound from Erie to Kingston penitentiary with a load of soft coal, ran into Cobourg harbor for shelter. When off the centre pier the anchor was dropped, but the speed the boat was going at snapped the chain. Before the other anchor could be dropped the schooner had run hard aground between the centre and west piers. The schooner is owned by Capt. McDonald, Toronto, who purchased it in Milwaukee this spring. The boat took water after running aground, and her own pumps and a siphon from a tug were unable to clear her.

The next English battalion which Montreal will be called upon to send to the front will be known as the 73rd, and will be commanded by Lieut.-Col. Peers Davidson.

CAMP GROUND DRY AGAIN AFTER THE HEAVY RAINS.

The assault-at-arms at the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday evening was a great success. There was a large number of soldiers present and the sport was thoroughly appreciated. The events were as follows:

Wrestling, 125 lbs.—Pte. Longbottom, 59th Battalion threw Pte. Labarr, also of the 59th Battalion, twice in five minutes.

Boxing, 145 lbs.—Pte. Linham, 59th Battalion was knocked out on the second round by Pte. McCormack, 38th Battalion.

Boxing bout, 125 lbs.—Pte. Allie, 59th Battalion won on points from Pte. Sauva, 59th Battalion.

Wrestling, 163 lbs.—Tpr. Truckle, 8th C.M.R., threw Tpr. Gardiner, 8th C.M.R., in five minutes.

Boxing 135 lbs.—Tpr. Macfarlane, 8th C.M.R., was from Pte. McKittrick, 59th Battalion, in the last two rounds.

Boxing, 135 lbs.—Pte. Hoj, won in the first and third rounds from Pte. Walker, 59th Battalion.

Boxing 160 lbs.—There were four wrestlers but two appeared and Murphy won on points from Glover.

Major McLaughlin will preside at a concert being given in the Y.M.C.A. tent on Friday evening by the 8th C.M.R.

On Saturday evening, Prof. J. L. Morrison, 38th Battalion, will give an address to the soldiers in the Y.M.C.A. tent.

The following events are on Saturday's programme: Quarter mile run, running broad jump, finale in tug-of-war, pig-a-back, wrestling finals, half mile run, medley race and by request an old men's race for soldiers over thirty years of age.

At Tete de Pont Barracks.
A local paper on Wednesday made the statement that there had been twenty desertions from Tete de Pont Barracks to date. Since "C" Battery has been organized it is officially stated that there were only three men deserted and these men may return.

The officers at the barracks are highly indignant that such a report should have been circulated, as it gives the public the opinion that there must be some mismanagement of the battery for such a large number leaving. There is not a more satisfied body of men anywhere than in "C" Battery.

The officers for "C" Battery and attached officers have been assigned to positions as follows:

Right Section—Lieut. R. L. Fort, R.C.H.A., Right Section commander; Lieut. Reddy, C.F.A., Lieut. Wilson, C.F.A., and Lieut. Johnston, C.F.A., attached.

Left Section—Lieut. J. H. Roberts, R.C.H.A.; Left Section commander, Lieut. Massie, C.F.A., and Lieut. Savage, U.L., attached.

No arrangements have yet been made for the court-martial of Allan P. McGregor, who is under arrest at Tete de Pont Barracks.

TWO WIVES SEEK ESTATE.
They Claim To Be Widows of Alvin Brown.

Brockville, July 9.—In the Surrogate Court, Judge McDonald presiding, there was brought to light a case of a man who, it may be shown, had led a double life for several years, and in the end met a violent death. A few months ago Alvin Brown, a well-known farmer of the township of Edwardsburg, while crossing the tracks a short distance west of Cardinal, en route to his home after some trading in the village, was struck by the International Limited express and killed. On Thursday Robert Dodge, of the same township, administrator of the estate, applied to have his accounts allowed and the remuneration fixed. The order was granted. He was represented by his solicitor, Irwin Hilliard, K.C., M.P., of Morrisburg.

The interesting feature of the application was that two ladies appeared, each claiming to have been the lawful wife of the deceased. An action for damages against the railway brought this about, the company's solicitors notifying the proper authorities that two widows had made application for the damages. The first Mrs. Jennie Brown, now residing in New Hampshire, states she was married to Mr. Brown in 1879, and lived with the deceased for a few years. P. K. Halpin, Prescott, appeared for her. The other, Mrs. Alice Brown, at present resides in Cardinal, and her marriage to Mr. Brown occurred four or five years ago.

The respective rights of the two women to share in the estate will have to be decided by another tribunal.

LIST OF THOSE CHOSEN

FOR QUEEN'S STATIONARY HOSPITAL REINFORCEMENTS

Will Go Overseas in About Ten Days—The Recruits Are Receiving Stretcher-Bearing Instruction.

With one or two possible changes the following is a list of the men who will go overseas as reinforcements for No. 5 Stationary Hospital (Queen's):

Thomas Angrove, George Angrove, Ernest Broadbridge, Harold V. Brown, Henry Cambridge, Arthur Cruse, Harold M. Child, Frederick Carter, Elmo E. Champagne, John Cadman, Percival Doby, Clarence V. Desjardis, Joseph H. Graves, Donald S. Gollam, Clarence Warriman, Alfred Hinks, William F. Hartley, Alexander F. Hartley, Alexander Johnston, Clarence Jenkins, Raymond Lanos, James V. Lawless, William Kendrick, Rev. Walter T. McCree, Aberdeen McBroom, Hugh McKinnon, Edwin J. Neal, William Northmore, Alfred E. Morrison, Albert M. Morrison, William Paupst, William Susman, William John Scott, Clarence Young, Berland and Zeron.

Nearly all of the men chosen are Kingstonians, six of them being Collegiate Institute students.

They are now receiving instruction in stretcher-bearing at the Armouries and the instructors do not hesitate in saying that they are as fine a lot of men as any that have yet gone over. There are over thirty on the waiting list.

Uniform has been supplied to thirty of the thirty-five and as soon as the rest of the equipment is issued the men will be ready to go overseas. This will likely be in about ten days.

The official approval of the appointment of Capt. Hollis as one of the officers has been received. Capt. Hollis was formerly a resident of Bermuda but graduated from Queen's University last year. He has since been actively engaged in militia work and had a good chance of being appointed Medical Officer for the 59th Battalion, being acting M. O. at present.

THOMPSON-SHOLES WEDDING

The Groom Is Going Overseas With the 46th Battalion.

At the home of the bride, 288 Queen street, on Thursday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock, Miss Lillian Pearl Scholes, fourth daughter of James Scholes, was quietly married to E. Murray Thompson, B.A., jurist-at-law of the firm of Torney and Thompson, Moose Jaw, Sask. Rev. G. I. Campbell performed the ceremony. Only immediate relatives of both parties were present.

The bridal couple were unattended. The bride was given away by her father. She was very prettily dressed in a gown of white net over silk. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

After the ceremony the newlyweds and guests repaired to the dining-room where luncheon was served, and toasts were given to the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

On the 7.20 o'clock train Thursday evening the happy couple left for a tour to eastern points.

Thompson is a graduate of Toronto University and won considerable popularity in rugby circles. At present he is a lieutenant attached to the 46th Battalion, C.E.F., which is in training at Sewell Camp, Manitoba. Leave of absence was granted Lieut. Thompson to be married. He expects shortly to go overseas.
