KINGSTON SHOULD SUPPLY 100 MEN FOR THE 59TH

Too Many Idle Men Are Walking the Streets.
DO NOT THINK ENOUGH OF THEIR COUNTRY TO FIGHT FOR IT

Lieut.-Col. Dawson scores that Class Of Young Men Who Have Not Come Forward When No One Is Dependent Upon Them.
"Kingston is able and should supply the hundred men of the base company of the 59th Battalion," said Lieut.-Col. H. J. Dawson, officer commanding the 59th Battalion, to the Whig on Wednesday morning.
There are too many men walking the streets of Kingston out of a job and no chance for one, and yet they are afraid to volunteer for overseas service. In every pool-room in the city are men who should be thoroughly ashamed of themselves. They are not working, therefore not supporting anyone, and there is absolutely no reason why they should not volunteer. When Lieut.-Col. Dawson took over the command of the 59th Battalion he thought as did others, that with so many Kingston officers the battalion could be called a Kingston one as enough recruits could be secured in Kingston. This city has fallen down through no reason except that there are men in the city who do not think enough of their country to fight for it.
Col. Dawson in speaking of the recruiting meeting which will be addressed by Dr. Michael Clark said:
"Just watch the so-called men who will not attend that meeting. They should not be allowed to remain in the country which they are afraid to fight for."
Every officer of the battalion is of the same opinion and thinks that the great number of men who are loafing about the city should join and make up the base company of the 59th Battalion and have at least one company representative of Kingston.
Q. M. S. Hunter of the C.M.S.C. who has proved himself such a splendid clerk at the headquarters here for the last two years, will go overseas with the 59th Battalion, and reports this week. He is an ex-member of the Gordon Highlanders and has kept up the good reputation that he made in South Africa all through his military career.
The 8th C.M.R., was engaged in squadron drill on Tuesday morning and in troop drill in the afternoon.
This week the 8th C.M.R., will receive 100 horses from Toronto, and Niagara, which will bring the number of mounts up to 263.

Capt. Archibald lectured to the 8th C.M.R., men on Tuesday afternoon on simple sanitary measures for the prevention of diseases which are liable to come to a soldier.
Capt. Mernery, Medical Officer 8th C.M.R., returned on Tuesday night from Adolphustown after spending a few days with his family.
A large number of the soldiers in camp have forwarded applications to take the machine-gun course which starts in a few days under Lieut.
Stethem, late of the Princess Patri-cias.
Arrangements are being made for the granting of a month's leave of absence to men from the camp who wish to work on farms during the harvest season. Only men of good conduct may go and during that time they will wear civilian clothes, their uniform being left at camp. Transportation up to 300 miles from the camp will be granted.

Pte. Goodfellow, 59th Battalion, has been removed to hospital with measles.
Tpr. T. P. Smythe, 8th C.M.R., Pte. C. W. Lewis, 38th Battalion, and Tpr. W. Doherty, 8th C.M.R., were removed to hospital on Tuesday.
Pte. F. R. Wes, 59th Battalion, was transferred from the Field Hospital to the Hotel Dieu on Tuesday.
Eleven patients were treated at the detention hospital on Tuesday.
The first of the tactical schemes to be worked out at night by the 38th Battalion was held on Tuesday evening. About two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon "B" Company of the 38th Battalion paraded with its equipment in the battalion lines and was supplied with food for supper. The route of march taken was down the Gananoque road and about four miles from the road the plan was worked out. The company was divided into parties of different strength, the idea being that they were out-posts protecting the battalion bivouacked in the rear. The country was thoroughly covered for some distance and everything carried out as in actual warfare. The signallers were placed in position so that in case the imaginary enemy should appear word could be sent back immediately. The officers were highly pleased with the work.

Sergt. W. H. Lloyd, A. M. C., has returned after spending a few days in Belleville.
Lieut.-Col. C. M. Edwards is president and Major E. H. Gillespie and Capt. W. S. Wood are members of a board of officers which will examine the officers of the 38th Battalion for promotion to captain.
Major W. J. Brown, Major D. Bar-rager and Capt. R. L. Parkinson are the officers of a board which will conduct examinations on portion "B" Provisional School of Infantry.
Lance-Sergeants T. E. Harris, J.
C. Burnett, W. D. Mills and Cpl. W.
A. Riley, 38th Battalion, have been promoted to the rank of sergeants provisionally.
Provisional Sergt. J. L. Perrin, "C" Company, 38th Battalion, has been appointed armorer sergeant provisionally.
Lance-Corps R. C. Jeffrey, S.
Tyres, E. Marchand and J. H. Pilgrim, 38th Battalion, have been promoted to the rank of corporal.
Lieut. R. H. Waddell is now on duty with the 59th Battalion.
Pte. L. Gardiner, 38th Battalion, has been discharged from hospital.
Lieut.-Col. W. G. Ketcheson, 49th Regiment, Belleville, was at the camp on Tuesday.
Thursday will be pay-day throug-out the camp.
A high-pressure water-tank is being installed, which will protect the administration building in case of fire.
Lieut. Fisher, 41st Regiment, has reported for duty with the 59th Battalion.
Band-Sergt. Blake, 59th Battalion, is organizing a splendid band.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND.
New Programme For Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
For Thursday, Friday and Saturday an excellent programme of vaudeville and pictures has been secured for the Grand Opera House. On these three days the Famous Players picture of "When We Were Twenty-one," with the popular, youthful star, William Elliott, in the leading role, will be shown. A two-reel Mutual photoplay, a Keystone comedy, the Pathe News of the leading events of the war, and also the Famous Pathe colored picture will be shown at every performance.
The vaudeville secured for these three days is good, and consists of Nathano Bros. in a novelty skating act that promises to be one of the best yet seen in this city.

ATIONS ANNOUNCED.
Ernest Gill Stood Highest and Receives A Wrist Watch Presented By a Generous Friend Of the Schools.
Below are given the results of the recent High School entrance examinations.
The names are arranged in both pass and honour lists in order of merit. In the honor list the exact relative standing is indicated. The six candidates first named will be awarded M.B. scholarships if they comply with the conditions of attendance in the Collegiate Institute.
Ernest C. Gill, who stands highest, is also the winner of the wrist watch, presented by a generous friend of the schools. This lad was a pupil of Miss Hentig, Victoria School, and is twelve years of age. He is the son of William Gill, University Avenue.
Successful candidates will be sent a certificate of standing and unsuccessful candidates will receive a statement of their marks. These will be sent without application. The regulations forbid the giving out of marks taken by successful candidates.

Letters to the Editor

University Avenue Petition.
Kingston, July 13.—(To the Editor:—) A second petition for the pavement of University Avenue is being circulated. It comes out now, that the former petition for a pavement of this street was signed by the great majority of the property-owners at the request of one, or more, paid canvassors who were employed by certain contractors to procure the necessary signatures, to put the matter through.
When a petition of that sort is circulated, the signers are apt to assume that it is the spontaneous act of the property owners concerned, and that no ulterior interest is at the back of it. If they knew that promoters were behind it who were pushing it for reasons of their own, the property owners would probably decline to sign it.
The new petition is not open to any such charge, but in view of the fact that the taxes stand at 25 mills (having been 19 mills a few years ago) and that war-taxes and war-expenses of all kinds are now the first claim on our resources, and that the prospect of better times is doubtful and distant, it is not the time to incur any expenditure that is not an absolute necessity.
As a resident of University avenue, I think it advisable to let the pavement stand over until peace is declared, and I think that view will prevail if the matter is carefully considered.
The automobiles have plenty of play-ground on the streets already paved.—G. M. MACDONNELL.

New Varnish Gave Trouble.
New varnish on the seats in a Rockport church caused trouble on Sunday morning. Members of the Evangelistic Band of the Kingston Y. M. C. A. were present at the service. When the congregation arose to sing they met with much difficulty in freeing themselves from the seats. One of the people stuck to the church as they did to the seats great success would follow.
