AT THE POLICE COURT MET WOUNDED MEN

BREAKING THE LIQUOR LAWS A SERIOUS OFFENCE.

Fine of $20 and Costs Imposed on Bartender Who Allowed Glass of Liquor to be Taken Off Premises—Drunk Asked For a Chance To Enlist.

Breaking the liquor laws is a very serious matter. In the Police Court on Wednesday morning a bartender at the restaurant at the G. T. R. outer station admitted allowing a glass of liquor to be carried off the premises, and was fined $20 and costs.

It is against the law to allow liquor to be taken off the premises. "All liquor must be consumed on the premises," said C. R. Webster, who was present to conduct the prosecution on behalf of Inspector C. W. Wright.

It is understood that the liquor was secured for an employee of a nearby factory, who was taken with a weak spell. However, the law makes no provision for the sale of liquor in such cases, and if the law is violated the offender must pay the penalty.

Nearly every man who is up for being drunk nowadays wants to be a soldier. It is to be hoped that if they are enlisted they will not hit up the "strong stuff" the way they did when civilians.

"I was drunk all right, but I want to enlist with the soldiers," said Daniel McDonald.

McDonald said he came here from Toronto, and as he had no record with the police here, he was given a chance.

A LAWN SOCIAL HELD

By the Princess Street Methodist Epworth League.

A successful lawn social was held under the auspices of Princess Street Methodist Church Epworth League on the grounds owned by W. D. Graves, at the corner of Princess and Frontenac streets, on Tuesday evening. The grounds were decorated with red, white and blue bunting and Union Jacks. These decorations were supervised by the Misses E. Peters and M. Graves, who were assisted by the Misses A. Payne, G. Peters, B. Gates, E. Quirt, A. Gardiner, and E. Wikins, Clifford McGilquham and Hugh Peters.

The Misses M. Gardiner, E. Peters, B. Mack and M. Graves constituted a reception committee, while Harold Wikins and Hugh Peters received the admission fee. The booths were:

Ice cream, in charge of Dr. Adams, C. McGilquham, E. Quirt and the Misses M. Quirt, B. Gates, C. Parrott, R. Garrison and G. Peters. Home-made—Misses A. Chown, H. Buck, N. Gates, and A. Timmerman.

Candy table—Misses A. Gardiner, M. Curry, E. Wikins and E. Quirt. Soft drink and water-melon—Misses E. Graves, W. Reynolds, B. King, and S. Pigeon.

William Mack was in charge of a set of scales. Music was furnished by the Salvation Army band.

It is expected that somewhere in the neighborhood of $75 was realized.

WHO TOLD OF THE BUTCHERY OF THE GERMANS.

Kingston Men Saw Children With Their Hands Cut Off—The Sight Aroused the Passions of the Canadians.

An interesting letter has been received by Ben Davy, Union street, from Arthur Twigg, son of William A. Twigg, Barrie street, a member of the 21st Battalion, now in camp in England. He expresses grateful appreciation for packages sent him, especially Old Chum tobacco, which he says cannot be procured there, and which the boys value very highly. Proceeding, he says:

"I met Bostridge to-day. He came over with the First Contingent. He was wounded in the back and also shot in the arm. I also met 'Scotty' Ramsay at Folkestone. He is wounded in the ankle. All the wounded we have seen here have told us that every word is true about the Germans butchering men and women. Bostridge says he saw Hitler girls and boys with their hands cut off. He declared it changed them into beasts for a while, and that they slaughtered every German they could find."

ALDS, HUGHES AND GRAHAM

Did Some Snipe-shooting in the City Council.

Alds. Hughes and Graham were very active in the City Council meeting on Tuesday evening. They sparred from the time the meeting began until it ended, and told each other just what the one thought of the other. While the Mayor was being taken to task about allowing an advertisement to be inserted in the press with regard to putting sheet asphalt on University avenue, and when he retorted that someone needed to wake up the Council committee, Ald. Hughes called out:

"They say that Ald. Nickle is the real chairman of the Board of Works, and not Ald. Graham."

Ald. Graham resented this remark of Ald. Nickle, and said not guided by the opinion of Ald. Nickle or any other member of the Board of Works, he declared: "I do my own thinking, and am not a wiggler like Ald. Hughes."

Ald. Hughes: "I do not wiggle as much as you."

"Oh, I don't mind him," was Ald. Graham's response; "he doesn't count for anything."

"Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed Ald. Hughes, and the debate took another turn.

ALDERMEN NOT DOING DUTY

In Keeping Clear of Speakers' Patriotic League.

Ald. Nickle is very warm over the negligence of the aldermen in not taking more interest in the work of the Speakers' Patriotic League, which is trying to stimulate recruiting in Kingston. To a Whig representative on Wednesday morning he said:

"Last night we had fifteen members of the City Council to frigate over King up a roadway but when the Council members were invited to attend a meeting of the Speakers' Patriotic League to organize for recruiting in order to save the Empire, only Mayor Sutherland, Ald. Kent and myself turned up. Surely the recruiting question is more important than fixing the city roads. More of the aldermen should take a hand and try and help the League to get recruits to go overseas."

Free Preserving Jar Labels.

Now that preserving time is here, housewives will be interested in learning how they can secure, free of charge, a package of fifty labels for their preserving jars. All one has to do is to cut out the trade-mark on the round, red design on the top of a carton containing Lantic Sugar, and forward it with your name and address to Dept. L, Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Montreal. Atlantic Sugar can be bought in 2-lb. and 4-lb. cartons, or in larger packages, and it is of an extra fine quality for preserving or other uses. Those who have received the labels are well pleased with them.

Will Not Build Road This Year.

The Board of Works had decided to rebuild the Montreal street roadway from Russell street to the C. P. R. tracks with water-bound macadam, but the City Engineer reported that he would not recommend putting the steam roller over the roadway this year owing to the winter main that had just been constructed in it. Accordingly the road will have to remain as it is until next year.

Attention, Young Men.
