KINGSTON YOUTH BOUND

To Go Overseas, And His Father Has

A prominent merchant almost lost his son on Tuesday noon when he "skipped" in an attempt to go overseas with the reinforcements for No. 5 Stationary Hospital (Queen's). This boy, who is only seventeen years of age, was anxious to get to the front but his parents will not hear to it. On Tuesday morning there was one vacancy in the list of men for the hospital and this young fellow, giving his age as eighteen was taken on. He was able to get away with it for a few hours, but some one informed his father, and the boy was brought back from Montreal. His father has decided to let the boy go overseas, however, and he will be allowed to join the 59th Battalion at Barriefield.

Will Give Out Mail.
Owing to the fact that the "postles" are given a holiday every Saturday afternoon, Postmaster James Stewart has made arrangements so that people calling at the post office between 1 and 4.30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, can secure their mail at the general delivery. Three of the letter carriess are remaining each Saturday to look after the work of giving out the mail.

Tobacco For Soldiers, Postmaster James Stewart has received subscription books from the Overseas Club, which is collecting money to purchase tobacco for men in the trenches. Each letter carrier has been provided with a book, and one is being kept at the post office. A box for money will also be placed in the post office lobby.
