A CHILD DROWNED

Near MacIntosh Mills on Sunday Afternoon.

MacIntosh Mills, July 19.—A sad drowning accident occurred at the head gates between MacIntosh Mills and Graham Lake on Sunday afternoon, when the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lecker lost her life. Four little children, three girls and a boy, were picking flowers, and when they came to the gates . . .

other side, ventured across. The youngest of the four fell through a small opening in the bridge. Her little brother, only six years, worked like a little hero trying to save his sister, while the other two ran for their parents. Medical aid was quickly summoned, but it was too late.

At two o'clock on Monday the body was laid to rest in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Trevelyan. Little Pauline was a very bright and promising little girl, and will be greatly missed by her little friends. She leaves three little sisters and two little brothers besides her parents to mourn.

WILL BUY MACHINE GUN.

And Eight Hamilton Postal Employees Decide to Enlist.

Hamilton, July 21.—Yesterday morning Adam Brown, postmaster, called the staff together, and after making some patriotic remarks, asked that every man do something for his country. Before the men went back to their duties, it was unanimously decided to purchase a machine gun. At the same time eight letter-carriers volunteered their service to man the gun each having previous experience.

Father Stanton Operated Upon.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., July 21.—Rev. Father Stanton, O.M.L., Ottawa University, was taken seriously ill in Ogdensburg and was removed to St. Mary's Hospital and operated on for kidney trouble. His condition is favorable.

OUT OF KINGSTON FOR BENEFIT OF KINGSTONIANS

The Thousand Islander Has Been Secured By Joseph Nash and He Has Arranged For a Number of Fine Outings.

Some of the finest excursions of the season have been those conducted by Joseph Nash, the proprietor of the College Book store. On several occasions this enterprising young business man has chartered the fine river steamer, Thousand Islander, and run most successful trips out of Kingston. These excursions have been well patronized and have proved to be thoroughly enjoyable. The boat is speedy and roomy, and the attention paid to the passengers throughout has been excellent.

To-morrow night Mr. Nash will run another of these popular searchlight excursions per Steamer Thousand Islander, leaving here at 7.45 o'clock. The popular band of the 38th Battalion from Barrield Camp will supply entertaining music.

Another of the delightful afternoon rambles among the islands will be run on Saturday afternoon next, leaving here at 2.15 p.m., and returning at 8 p.m. This is one of the most-delightful of the many excursions among the islands, the boat touching at Clayton and Thousand Island Park. It then proceeds as far east as Alexandria Bay, returning by a different channel, and giving one an unusually fine view of the islands.

On Civic Holiday—Monday next—Mr. Nash will conduct still another excursion on the Thousand Islander, making the usual fifty mile ramble among the islands, leaving here at 2.15 p.m. The 38th Battalion band will also furnish music on this occasion.

Kingstonians will undoubtedly show their appreciation of Mr. Nash's enterprise by patronizing these delightful outing trips. After all, there are few more delightful ways of spending holidays than on the water.

ADDRESS ON "THE DIAMOND"

By Prof. William Nicol to Queen's Summer School.

Prof. William Nicol gave an address to the Queen's University Summer School students on Monday afternoon in the Mineralogy lecture room. His subject was "The Diamond," on the discovery of which he gave a very interesting account, illustrated with lantern slides. Brazil was the first country in which these valuable minerals were found.

Their discovery in South Africa was due to an accident. John O'Reilly, a pack peddler, found some Kafir children playing "Jacks" with a few pebbles. One of these, by its brightness, attracted his attention. He asked for it, and it was freely given to him as a "worthless little stone." He had it tested, and it proved to be a diamond of great value. That was the beginning of the famous Kimberley diamond mines.

Prof. Nicol proceeded to show a number of pictures illustrating the very crude manner by which the mining was first carried on, often resulting in great loss of life to the negro laborers. But the British Government got hold of it, and with its characteristic solicitude for human life, whether of black or white, reformed the whole system. Diamond mining in South Africa is now carried on intelligently and humanely.

The lecture was interspersed with numerous witty anecdotes and was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd of students present.

Mineralogy is one of the new studies added to the Summer School curriculum this year, and is proving to be one of the most popular subjects.

PROF. MARECHAL'S CAREER

He Was Dismissed From the French Army.

The London Daily Telegraph of July 9th contains the following regarding a former Queen's University assistant professor:

"Jules Marechal, the French witness of Sobor, who testified at the Lusitania inquiry that he heard a series of explosions when the ship was sinking, resembling the firing of machine guns, and whom Lord Hazy described as untruthful, was the subject of the following communique issued by the Minister of Foreign Affairs this evening:

"Marechal was twice sentenced in Belgium, on June 18th, 1912, and Jan. 19th, 1914, for forgery, concealing his identity, and disorderly conduct. On June 23rd, 1912, Lieutenant Marechal was found guilty by a Lille court-martial of illegal absence and was dismissed from the army for dishonorable conduct on Nov. 12, 1913. Marechal was returning from Canada on the Lusitania. He had previously requested the War Minister to reinstate him in the army with his former rank for the duration of the war, but his application was refused."

In Case Of Rain.

Should it happen to rain this evening, the big recruiting meeting will be held in the Armouries. This afternoon the weather promised to be favorable for the gathering in Artillery Park.

Miss Grace Breed of Denver, Col., earned all her expenses for one year at the Colorado Agricultural college by raising chickens on a vacant city lot.

Searchlight, Thursday, 7.45 p.m. sharp. Canada's crack regimental band, 38th Battalion, on board. A whole lot of people would see their feet less if wishes were horses.
