Shaughnessy seems bent on winning his fourth pennant, and has already started to strengthen his Ottawa baseball team in order to make his chances stronger. He is on top of the heap just now.

Montreal is to have still another race track. 'It will not be a madeover trotting park, nor even a halfmile track, but will be listed among the 'big tracks," and, if the plans at present under way are carried to completion, will be one of the finest on the North American continent.

"Bill" Donovan inclines to the balief that Detroit will win the American League pennant this season. He figures that Jennings will go to the front as soon as he gets a little improvement in the pitching, and Wild Bill considers that this improvement will surely come. The fact that the Tigers could stick so well in the fight despite poor pitching makes the argument appear logical.

The Hamilton Tigers are ready to go through the usual campaign, despite the fact that many of their players have exlisted and Argos are also anxious to see the schedule carried out as in former years. They are more enthusiastic than ever at Ottawa, as the O. R. F. U. team has decided to disband and cast in its lot with the Interprovincial team. The teams in the Interprovincial are all under bond to play out their schedule, and as three of the clubs represented in the union are in favor of having the usual games played, there is no doubt that the gridiron heroes will have their innings
