

THOSE WHO SHOULD GO ARE NOT VOLUNTEERING

Too Many Married Men Are Offering Themselves.

CASE OF AN OFFICER

WHO IS SOLDIERING FOR MERCENARY ENDS.

But Who Will Not Go Overseas—Officers at Barrieffield Are Inviting Young Men Visitors To Enlist and With Success.

If a young man takes a walk through Barrieffield Camp dressed in civilian clothes and he commences a conversation with an officer, almost surely the first question he will be asked will be: "Why are you not wearing a uniform?" The officers at the camp are doing their best to stimulate recruiting. There are too many reasons for going, to outweigh any that might be put forward for not going, and in a number of cases the young fellow enlists. The officer's energy is in the right direction and they should be commended for the work they are doing in their quiet way of bringing in recruits.

The Whig representative was informed of a case of an officer wearing the uniform for mercenary reasons on Thursday. This man does not come from Kingston. Needless to say he will not have the position long since he has been found out. Last fall he was offered a chance to go overseas, but refused because he could not be promoted at the same time. He has since, in an effort to straighten matters, asked to be sent overseas. On Tuesday he was given another opportunity, but backed down.

There are two classes of men to be rounded up. One class is the officers who for years have been posing as soldiers and playing at the game but who quit when it comes to a show-down. The other class of men who should be urged to go are the idle. A 14th recruiting officer said on Thursday: "Tell the public that we want everyone who should go. You can also say, and this most emphatically, that the class of men we are now receiving are not those we desire. The men we are getting are as a rule married or holding important positions. The idlers should come first or be made to go so that the others may be able to stay at home at their work."

The 59th Battalion is sending twenty officers and men to take the machine-gun course which opens on Monday.

The bakers of the Army Service Corps have about 7,000 pounds of bread on hand, about 2,500 pounds being issued from this amount on Friday morning. Since the A. S. C. have been in charge of the baking of the bread there has not been one complaint, which speaks a great deal for the splendid class of bakers S. S. Baker Pollitt has on his staff.

Seven recruits arrived on Thursday afternoon from Belleville for the 59th Battalion.

F. E. Good, Parham, and T. B. Mitchell have been taken on the strength of the 59th Battalion.

Monday next (Civic Holiday) will be a holiday at the camp and the soldiers will be dismissed directly after the early morning parade.

The men at Barrieffield Camp are treated as men at all times and the consideration of the officers for them is being brought out continually in little ways. Every consideration is shown for the man who is brave enough to volunteer for overseas service, and this is why the soldiers at Barrieffield Camp are so thoroughly satisfied with the conditions.

On Thursday an order issued by Lieut.-Col. C. M. Edwards, O.C., 38th Battalion, was an example of this. It read that all week-end passes in future would give the man liberty from Sunday until Tuesday noon instead of until Monday as was the case heretofore.

Lieut.-Col. C. M. Edwards, Lieut.-Col. S. A. Thompson and Major G. H. Gillespie are a board of officers to examine the officers of the 38th Battalion for the rank of Field Officer.

Col. Biggar, Director-General of Supplies and Transports, expressed himself as highly pleased with the work at Barrieffield Camp after a thorough inspection, accompanied by Major J. Hamilton, A.D. of S. and T. Col. Biggar left on Thursday night for Toronto.

Pte. Patterson and Lance-Corporal Pember, 59th Battalion, are in the Field Hospital with rheumatism. Pte. Burke, 38th Battalion, is in the city hospital with a poisoned face. Pte. Smith, R.C.E. is in the Detention Hospital at the camp with pleurisy. Pte. Bouker, C.A.S.C. and Pte. Marriea, 59th Battalion, are in the Field Hospital.

Too much walking has been the cause of several cases of sore feet among the soldiers at the camp but the medical officers are instructing the men on how to take care of their feet and few are now being received.

The officers of the Provisional School of Infantry on Thursday evening entertained at dinner Capt. P. W. Fitzgerald, Capt. W. Fitzgerald, and Capt. Crawford. Capt. Fitzgerald gave an address which was greatly appreciated.

A pleasant event took place on Thursday, when the men of No. 13 platoon, "D" Company, 38th Battalion, took the opportunity of showing how they recognized Color-Sergeant Hunt's (Charlie of the G.G. F.G.) efforts to bring them to the same standard as the other companies by presenting him with a gold-headed ebony stick. This is a new company formed to take the place of "D" Company that went to the front.

The 8th C.M.R. is meeting with unexpected success in its call for recruits. Eleven have arrived from Ottawa, nine from Belleville and fifty more are expected from Ottawa and Toronto. New uniforms are being issued to the men of the 8th Regiment and now there will be a part of the regiment absolutely new. New horses, recruits and uniforms will give the officers a splendid opportunity to show their instructing ability.

Lieut.-Col. S. A. Thompson, R.M.C., gave a lecture to the officers of the 8th C.M.R. on Friday afternoon on court-martial.

Troop-sergeants will have an opportunity to revise their stock of swear-words and use them on the rookies," said an officer of the 8th Regiment on Thursday.

The 8th C.M.R. has a good bunch of men who are not only soldiers but athletes. In the orderly room tent are two large pennants for winning the Y.M.C.A. Dominion Day all-around championship and also the machine-gun contest.

William Pugsley, who has been conducting evangelistic addresses under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A., gave his farewell address on Thursday evening. The meeting was very largely attended and a number of soldiers were converted. During the evening, Miss Ferron and Rogers and Mr. Saunders gave vocal selections which were very much appreciated.

Lieuts. P. H. Gardiner, K. Greene, W. B. Meagherlin, J. E. Muckle and J. M. Longman, 38th Battalion, will take the machine-gun course which opens on Monday.

Part of "D" Company, 38th Battalion, was on the ranges on Friday morning.

The machine-gun section and the signalling section of the 38th Battalion had their teeth examined on Friday.

At Tete de Pont Barracks, Gunner Dawson, who was in an accident at Barrieffield and was in Gunner Fraser was run over by a gun-carriage some time ago, has fully recovered and has reported for duty. Gunner Fraser is expected to be out shortly.

The N.C.O.'s taking the qualifying course at Tete de Pont Barracks were given their preliminary examinations on Friday morning.

Lieut. M. M. Johnston, "C" Battery, left on Friday for Westmount.

"C" battery men will have a picnic with a large programme of sports at Brophy's point within a week.

To Help Col. Ross' Hospital. The Nurses Alumnae Association of the Kingston General Hospital has decided to make some contributions to the Canadian Field Hospital of Lieut.-Col. A. E. Ross in France, and will shortly pack a box of necessities. There are a good many Kingston young men attached to this hospital corps, and little has been done for it.

KINGSTON BOY AT FRONT

Has Composed a Song Which Has Made a Big Hit.

A Kingstonian at the front, Corp. Frank Mullin, 48 Ordinance street, now with the remnants at Hontot Base, France, has composed a song which has made a big hit. It is entitled, "The Remounts' Song," and is sung to the tune of the famous "Mr. Dooley." Corp. Mullin rendered his song at a concert given on July 1st by the Canadians and it was received with much favor. The Whig has just received a copy of the song. The words follow:

You've heard them sing of Heroes in the days of long ago,
But Lieut. Col. Hendrie's band would make them all look slow.
For he has got the classiest bunch that ever rode a "mag",
If you doubt it, go and ask him and he's not the man to brag.

Chorus—
About his Remounts his gallant Remounts.
The men, and not the horses new
And they are sticklers while the candle flickers,
On the bowls of beer down at the wet canteen.

His officers, they are the best that ever man was with,
I'll point a good one out to you that one is Captain Smith,
He's O. C. of our Squadron and his smile it won't come off,
And as they say in England he's a "regular blooming toff."

Chorus—
He's with the Remounts, the fighting Remounts,
He's with that aggregation heart and soul,
And him we'll follow o'er hill and hollow,
Now here's long life to him, but where's the bow!

We've got a man named Jackson, and he surely is a beaut,
And after lights are out at night into his hut he'll shoot,
He's for office every morning, he is winning great renown,
The Sergt.-Major calls him up and the O.C. calls him down.

Chorus—
He's with the Remounts, the Hendrie Remounts,
There is not a thing bold Jackson wouldn't do.
He's kind of swanky this lanky Yankee,
And he says he's trying to learn to "Parley Vous."

We have also got a doctor, though he does not practice much,
His name is Tom McGeary and the boys all call him "Fouch",
He gave a horse a dose of dope 'tis better now he said,
But, Sergt.-Major only smiled; he knew that horse was dead.

Chorus—
He's with the Remounts, the dashy Remounts,
He doesn't often try to show his skill,
But, my description of his prescription,
Is take it, it will either cure or kill.

Another man named Bethel having stripes upon his arm,
Put's all the boys into the clink but he says he means no harm
And if a fellow gets in right, old Bethel gets him out.

Chorus—
He's with the Remounts, the daring Remounts,
He says he's there to keep the boys from crime,
For he's a dueth, he'll have you doing time.

And now I think I'll wind this up, I'll just give you one more.
And introduce Lieut. Cowan from the Quarter master's stores,
The man that draws your rations boys and issues all your clothes,
And where he gets the outfit from only old "Jim" Crawford knows.

Chorus—
They're with the Remounts, the mushy Remounts,
Believe me they are always in the whirl,
They're up and doing if fun us brewing,
And now, I hear Jim Crawford has a girl.

WHEN HOT DAYS COME

The Happy Coolness of Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice.

This healthful golden juice, with its snappy, fruity, aromatic flavor, is a summer necessity as well as a summer luxury. It keeps you well, it does you good, it supplies the pure fruit acid that the system needs. Also why is it supplied by the British Government in such large quantities to the navy and the expeditionary forces? The reason is, it keeps people healthy and is a most satisfying, cooling beverage for a hot day.

Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice is refined from cultivated limes grown in the beautiful island of Montserrat.

All leading druggists and grocers have it—Get the genuine Montserrat.

Inscriptions on Notice Boards.

Recently there have been two notice-boards erected on the vacant lot on James street between Bagot and Rideau streets. For what purpose they have been placed there no one can tell. The boards take the form of a T and are held in an upright position by means of bolts, giving them the appearance of crosses over heroes graves. The cross boards have certainly afforded ample accommodation for the inscription of epitaphs, and if Kaiser William could only see what has been chalked in his remembrance it would cause him to blush for shame if nothing else in the world could make him do so.
