FIRE INSURANCE

Mighty Satisfied

Is the man who places himself within our hands for the writing of a Fire Insurance policy, because every policy we write is backed by reliable companies, at rates as low as safety allows.
We've known men to old policies that looked all right, and worked all wrong before and after a fire. Ask us to place your insurance and you'll find yourself in the safest of hands. Today? May be too late to-morrow.

SOLDIERS ARE DOING
Everything They Can to Help Recruiting in This City.

"Come on, boys, join the army!"
This is the slogan of the boys already clad in khaki at Barrieland Camp, and on their own initiative they are doing a little missionary work to get more recruits. In the city parks, where a great many of the men spend their spare time, they have been asking young men to take their place for their King and Country.

The Red Book Magazine.
The Red Book Magazine for August has a refreshing, summery atmosphere about it that is wholly delightful. Besides three splendid serials, it includes thirteen seasonable short stories: Meredith Nicholson's blithely charming Mackinac story, "Sitting Up with Susie"—of which the hero (with flags pictures, too!) is a two-hundred-and-fifty-pounder, and the heroine is a cow; George Fitch's rollicking motor-bow tale, "Gasoline Plus Alcohol"; John Fleming Wilson's impressive story of a seafaring family, "Thomas Dunham & Son & Son"; Ellis Parker Butler's "The Disappearance of Ma'y Jane"; George Alan England's amusing "Love; Walter Jones"; "Doors That Never Open Again"; and the stories by Ray Sprigle, Albert Payson Terhune and the late Frank Westcott, Sir Gilbert Parker's "Wild Youth," the story of a Canadian People and Francesca, comes to its second vivid installment. Mrs. Hum-phry Ward's "A Great Success" too reaches its great climax in this August installment.

New Record in Tea Prices.
Over eight million pounds of tea have been sunk in merchant ships during the war. This immense quantity could ill be spared at a time when the demand for tea throughout the world has reached a greater volume than ever. Anyway the cost of tea has risen to a higher level than history records for many years.

Scythes and Hooks

Reliability is one of the first things we look for when we buy scythes and hooks. The steel of which the blades are made is tested by us. Next we see the handles have that hefty feel that makes the scythe or hook a good tool. You are sure of them being good when you buy here.
