RECEIVED HIS REWARD.
Becker, a former lieutenant of the New York Police Force, a mighty man by virtue of his position and forcefulness of character, has paid the penalty of his wrong-doing.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
We have heard the last of Becker. Would that we had heard the last of Thaw. These New York worthies are a terrible social affliction.

DOUBTFUL POLITICAL PURISTS.
The Montreal Mail is very disappointing in its attitude towards the Manitoba Government. It has stood out for absolute honesty in public life and has been most distressed because the Quebec Legislature has not done more to purge itself of men who have been tainted by political corruption.

DEPRIVATION.
One of the summer's privations seriously affects the bathing girl, who cannot wear her fur boa becomingly in the lake.

QUEER OFFICIALS.
What "speak-easy" had those two Sarria policemen been visiting, before affirming that snow fell on them the other night?

Belgian Lions.
The Germans have melted the Belgian bronze lion that stood on the field of Waterloo. The lion hearts of the Belgians they will never be able to melt.

A Pertinent Query.
No doubt Cupid will heartily approve of the city of Hamilton's decision to discharge all unmarried le-whose rulings were somewhat peculiar, and others who were willing to swallow anything and support anything at the command of their leader. Have any of these repent of their political sins? Are they not, indeed, the old offenders of the old party posing as purists under a new name? Is there any likelihood of them escaping the condemnation which is their due?

COL. DUFF DEPARTS.
To-day, obedient to the commands of the War Department, Col. Duff left the city for England. He joins Queen's College Hospital Corps, which leaves presently for the Dardanelles. The allocation and assignment carry with them great responsibilities. One does not hear very much about the operations against forts and trenches which bar the way of the Allied forces, but they are huge and dangerous. The casualties are admittedly heavy. Every foot of the way, by water and land, must be fought with a fury that is not equalled in any other part of the great campaign.

UNDELIVERED.
Is Letter Addressed to "Most Popular Man in Germany."
A letter bearing the inscription, "To the most popular man in Germany was posted to Berlin, Germany, Berlin," Berlin's Post Office redirected it to "General von Kluck, Paris."

DUTY OF WOMEN.
The women of Germany glory in sending their sons and their husbands to fight for their country. Is any Canadian woman holding a man back? Let her come to the recruiting meeting on Wednesday, 21st July, and hear Michael Clark, M. P., of Red Deer.

Not Too Late Yet.
It is not too late to organize a lynching party rather than let the war orders grafter and the Manitoba crooks go scot free.

Public Opinion.
The Winnipeg Free Press has it that the Conservative scheme is to demand the dismissal of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province. His offence is that he demanded an enquiry into the scandals of the Roblin administration. And he is to be removed for that? The people will have something to say about it.

Quite Reasonable.
The mayor of Hamilton made an excellent suggestion recently when he said, speaking of the unemployed problem, that people should refuse to assist able-bodied and single young men who had not offered their services at the recruiting depot.

Wise and Otherwise.
Musical directors beat their way through the world.
And in many cases writer's cramp affects the stomach.
Printers measure their takes and tailors take their measures.
A small boy's ideal hero is a big boy who runs away from school.
Love's a disease that keeps one sick a long time after he gets well.

Kingston Events 25 Years Ago.
Ald. McIntyre is spending a month at Old Orchard Beach.
R. Waldron, Jr. is in Paris, after making purchases in England for the fall and winter trade.
Sandford Calvin has been extending his tour to Italy, and is now in Florence.

Rippling Rhymes. Walt Mason. AFTERMATH. The day will come when, from the wreck, some king will come, the victor, and he will cry, perchance, "By heck, I met the foe and licked her!" Then for an hour he may rejoice, as to his throne he mooses, and whoop with proud, exultant voice, and throw himself some posies. But when the flush of pride is past, and o'er his realm he gazes, he'll use such language as "Dod-gast!" and other bitter phrases. He'll see the one-time happy homes reduced to splintered lumber, cathedrals with their shattered domes, and graves without a number; he'll see the blinded, crippled hosts on wooden legs meander, and be ashamed to spring his boasts that he's an Alexander. He'll see the widows worked like steers, in round of toll unending, the granddaughters, in their dotard years, "neath grievous burdens beading." "To this," he'll sigh, "through crimes and sins, and seas of blood I've risen! In modern war, whoever wins, the booty prize is his!"
